

WEEKEND READINGS

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time
Vigésimo Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

This Sunday invites us to reflect deeply on the gift of humility. We are reminded that true wisdom and favor with God come not from pride or status, but from humbling ourselves and recognizing our limitations. God shows special care for the poor and those in need, making a home for the lowly and vulnerable. As members of God’s family, we are called to live with the humility and grace of Christ, who leads us to a higher, spiritual place. Jesus teaches us to avoid seeking honor for ourselves and instead to serve others generously, especially those who cannot repay us. When we give without expectation, we participate in the kingdom’s true greatness, marked by love and selflessness. In embracing humility and open-hearted service, we follow Christ’s example and draw closer to the blessings God promises.

Este domingo nos invita a reflexionar profundamente sobre el don de la humildad. Nos recuerdan que la verdadera sabiduría y el favor de Dios no provienen del orgullo ni del estatus, sino de humillarnos y reconocer nuestras limitaciones. Dios muestra un cuidado especial por los pobres y necesitados, haciendo un hogar para los humildes y vulnerables. Como miembros de la familia de Dios, estamos llamados a vivir con la humildad y la gracia de Cristo, quien nos conduce a un lugar más alto y espiritual. Jesús nos enseña a no buscar honor para nosotros mismos, sino a servir generosamente a los demás, especialmente a quienes no pueden devolvernos el favor. Cuando damos sin esperar nada a cambio, participamos en la verdadera grandeza del reino, marcada por el amor y la entrega desinteresada. Al abrazar la humildad y el servicio de corazón abierto, seguimos el ejemplo de Cristo y nos acercamos a las bendiciones que Dios promete.
