

WEEKEND READINGS

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Decimo Octavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Today we are reminded that God is always faithful to provide what we truly need. He sees our needs even before we do. His love and generosity never leave us lacking. In today's gospel, through the intercession of Jesus, He feeds the five thousand. The crowd ate till they were satisfied, and still there were 12 baskets full left over. We continue to see this miracle paralleled throughout history and in our own lives. God calls us to himself and promises to provide for our needs. Each reading reminds us that God alone truly satisfies both our earthly needs and the deepest longings of our souls. When we are in union with God, even through hardship and uncertainty, he remains with us, willing our good. Let us be patient and trust in His timing and care, confident that He will fill our cups to overflow and satisfy our every need. May we reflect this same love and generosity to all those around us, being his true disciples.

Hoy recordamos que Dios siempre es fiel y nos provee lo que realmente necesitamos. Él ve nuestras necesidades incluso antes que nosotros. Su amor y generosidad nunca nos defraudan. En el evangelio de hoy, por intercesión de Jesús, Él alimenta a los cinco mil. La multitud comió hasta saciarse, y aún sobraron doce canastas llenas. Seguimos viendo este milagro reflejado a lo largo de la historia y en nuestras propias vidas. Dios nos llama a sí mismo y promete proveer para nuestras necesidades. Cada lectura nos recuerda que solo Dios satisface verdaderamente tanto nuestras necesidades terrenales como los anhelos más profundos de nuestra alma. Cuando estamos unidos a Dios, incluso en medio de las dificultades y la incertidumbre, Él permanece con nosotros, deseando nuestro bien. Seamos pacientes y confiemos en su tiempo y cuidado, seguros de que Él colmará nuestras copas hasta rebosar y satisfará todas nuestras necesidades. Que podamos reflejar este mismo amor y generosidad a todos los que nos rodean, siendo sus verdaderos discípulos. discípulos.
