

WEEKEND READINGS

First Sunday of Lent

Primer Domingo de Cuaresma

Reflection Questions on the Gospel text for the First Sunday of Lent. Have you ever been tested in your life in order to prove or demonstrate your worth?

1. What is your image of the desert? If you were going to ask an artist to draw a picture of the Spirit leading Jesus into the desert, what would you suggest should be included in the image?
2. Have you ever been tested in your life in order to prove or demonstrate your worth?
3. How did you feel about being tested at the time? How did you feel afterward, and how do you feel about it now, looking back?
4. Do you think there is a connection between Jesus' experience in the desert and his ability to proclaim the reign of God?
5. Where do you see the action of the spirit operating in your life?
6. Does this gospel lead you to see a way that you might be challenged by the spirit of God in your life? How might this season of Lent be a time for you to embrace the Spirit, who might be testing you so that you too can more boldly proclaim the reign of God?

Can you take time to talk with God honestly about whatever thoughts or feelings this gospel might have brought up within you or about your desires for your Lenten journey this year?

Collection for the Catholic Mission among Black and the Native Americans

Mandated by the III Plenary Council in 1884, the 125-year-old National Collection for Black and Indian people continues as the embodiment of the Church's concern for evangelizing the Black and Indian peoples of the United States. The funds are distributed as grants to dioceses throughout the United States, supporting and strengthening evangelization programs which otherwise would cease. The Collection was formerly known as The Black and Indian Home Mission Collection.
