

Sixth Sunday of Easter
Sexto Domingo De Pascua

On this Sixth Sunday of Easter, we are invited to reflect on love as something lived out through daily actions. Jesus teaches that love for him is expressed by keeping his commandments, which are rooted in love itself. This love is not meant to remain hidden, but to be shared through simple acts of service and care for others. He offer reassurance in the promise of the Holy Spirit, a steady presence that guides and accompanies us. It also reminds readers that God is not distant, but present within each person. This awareness can open the way to recognizing that same presence in others, even in challenging relationships. In those moments, there is a quiet invitation to respond with patience, compassion, and generosity. Overall, we see a deep sense of connection in God's love that encourages a faithful, everyday response to that love.

En este Sexto Domingo de Pascua, se nos invita a reflexionar sobre el amor como algo que se vive a través de las acciones cotidianas. Jesús enseña que el amor hacia él se expresa al cumplir sus mandamientos, los cuales están fundamentados en el amor mismo. Este amor no está destinado a permanecer oculto, sino a compartirse mediante gestos sencillos de servicio y cuidado hacia los demás. Él ofrece consuelo en la promesa del Espíritu Santo, una presencia constante que guía y acompaña. También recuerda que Dios no está distante, sino presente en cada persona. Esta conciencia puede abrir el camino para reconocer esa misma presencia en los demás, incluso en relaciones difíciles. En esos momentos, existe una invitación serena a responder con paciencia, compasión y generosidad. En conjunto, se percibe una profunda conexión en el amor de Dios que anima a una respuesta fiel y cotidiana a ese amor.
