

WEEKEND READINGS

The Most Holy Trinity Santísima Trinidad

This Sunday, the readings invite us to reflect on the love and presence of the Holy Trinity in our lives. In Exodus, God reveals Himself to Moses as a merciful and gracious God, rich in kindness and faithfulness. That same love is fully shown in the Gospel, where we hear that God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, not to condemn the world, but to save it. Through Jesus, we come to know the heart of the Father, and through the Holy Spirit, we receive strength, peace, and guidance each day. Saint Paul reminds us to live in unity and love, reflecting the communion of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit in our own families and communities. As baptized children of God, we are never alone, the Holy Trinity, given to us by Jesus, remains with us always, guiding us to live lives for the glory of God, in peace, love, and joy. May we always be open to the fullness of life The Holy Trinity offers us. Este domingo, las lecturas nos invitan a reflexionar sobre el amor y la presencia de la Santísima Trinidad en nuestras vidas. En el libro del Éxodo, Dios se revela a Moisés como un Dios misericordioso y compasivo, rico en bondad y fidelidad. Ese mismo amor se muestra plenamente en el Evangelio, donde escuchamos que Dios amó tanto al mundo que entregó a su Hijo único, no para condenar al mundo, sino para salvarlo. Por medio de Jesús, llegamos a conocer el corazón del Padre, y por medio del Espíritu Santo recibimos fuerza, paz y guía cada día. San Pablo nos recuerda que debemos vivir en unidad y amor, reflejando la comunión del Padre, del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo en nuestras familias y comunidades. Como hijos bautizados de Dios, nunca estamos solos; la Santísima Trinidad, dada a nosotros por Jesús, permanece siempre con nosotros, guiándonos a vivir para la gloria de Dios en paz, amor y alegría. Que siempre permanezcamos abiertos a la plenitud de vida que la Santísima Trinidad nos ofrece.
