

WEEKEND READINGS

Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
Vigésimo Séptimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Even in moments when God seems silent or distant, He invites us to trust that His plan is unfolding in ways we cannot yet see. Like the prophet Habakkuk, we may cry out in frustration, but God reminds us that the just live by faith. Jesus teaches that even faith the size of a mustard seed has great power, not because of its size, but because of the One in whom we place our trust. In a world that often demands instant answers, we are called to be patient, faithful servants who walk humbly with God. This Sunday challenges us to rekindle our faith, not through grand gestures, but through quiet perseverance and daily commitment. Let us not grow weary, but allow the Spirit to stir in us the courage to serve without seeking reward. Today, may we choose to act in faith, and to listen for God’s gentle voice.

Incluso en los momentos en que Dios parece estar en silencio o distante, Él nos invita a confiar en que su plan se está desarrollando de formas que aún no podemos ver. Como el profeta Habacuc, podemos clamar con frustración, pero Dios nos recuerda que el justo vivirá por su fe. Jesús nos enseña que incluso una fe del tamaño de una semilla de mostaza tiene un gran poder, no por su tamaño, sino por Aquel en quien confiamos. En un mundo que exige respuestas instantáneas, estamos llamados a ser siervos pacientes y fieles que caminan con humildad junto a Dios. Este domingo nos desafía a reavivar nuestra fe, no con gestos grandiosos, sino con perseverancia silenciosa y compromiso diario. No nos cansemos, sino que permitamos que el Espíritu despierte en nosotros el valor para servir sin esperar recompensa. Hoy, que elijamos actuar con fe y escuchar la suave voz de Dios.
