

WEEKEND READINGS

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Vigésimo Noveno Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Today’s readings remind us that loving God is more than praying and following rules; it is allowing His love to shape our lives. When we love our neighbors as ourselves, show kindness to those in need, and care for the poor and vulnerable, we make God’s love visible in the world. We are called to treat everyone with love and compassion, especially those who are often forgotten or overlooked. When life becomes difficult, we are called to remain faithful and trust that God is walking with us. Let us reflect on the things that pull us away from God and make room for Him to be the center of our lives. When the love of God guides our choices, words, and actions, we live out the true meaning of His commandments. As we go through this week, may we love God more deeply by loving the people He has placed in our lives.

Las lecturas de hoy nos recuerdan que amar a Dios es mucho más que rezar y seguir reglas; significa permitir que su amor transforme nuestra vida. Cuando amamos a nuestro prójimo como a nosotros mismos, mostramos bondad hacia quienes lo necesitan y cuidamos de los pobres y vulnerables, hacemos visible el amor de Dios en el mundo. Estamos llamados a tratar a todos con amor y compasión, especialmente a quienes muchas veces son olvidados o pasan desapercibidos. Cuando la vida se vuelve difícil, estamos llamados a permanecer firmes en la fe y a confiar en que Dios camina con nosotros. Reflexionemos sobre aquello que nos aleja de Dios y hagamos espacio para que Él ocupe el centro de nuestra vida. Cuando el amor de Dios guía nuestras decisiones, nuestras palabras y nuestras acciones, vivimos el verdadero sentido de sus mandamientos. Al comenzar esta semana, que podamos amar más profundamente a Dios amando a las personas que Él ha puesto en nuestro camino.
