

WEEKEND READINGS

Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time Vigésimo Septimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

God has blessed each of us with many gifts, talents, and opportunities. These gifts are not meant only for ourselves, but are entrusted to us so that we can share them with others. Like in today's Gospel, a vineyard is cared so that it may produce good fruit. God calls us to let our lives produce the fruits of love, kindness, mercy, and justice. Sometimes we can forget that everything we have is a gift from God and begin to think only about ourselves. Jesus reminds us that we are responsible for how we use what God has entrusted to us. Faithful stewardship is caring for God's gifts and using them to serve our family, our community, and those in need. This week, let us ask ourselves what good fruit God is calling us to produce through our words and actions. May we use our gifts with grateful hearts so that our lives may become a blessing to others and a reflection of God's love.

Dios ha bendecido a cada uno de nosotros con muchos dones, talentos y oportunidades. Estos dones no son solamente para nosotros, sino que Dios nos los ha confiado para que los compartamos con los demás. Al igual que en el Evangelio de hoy, una viña se cuida para que produzca buenos frutos. Dios nos llama a que nuestras vidas produzcan frutos de amor, bondad, misericordia y justicia. A veces podemos olvidar que todo lo que tenemos es un regalo de Dios y comenzar a pensar solamente en nosotros mismos. Jesús nos recuerda que somos responsables de cómo utilizamos lo que Dios nos ha confiado. Ser buenos administradores significa cuidar los dones que Dios nos ha dado y utilizarlos para servir a nuestra familia, a nuestra comunidad y a quienes más lo necesitan. Esta semana, preguntémonos qué buen fruto quiere Dios que produzcamos por medio de nuestras palabras y acciones. Que sepamos utilizar nuestros dones con un corazón agradecido, para que nuestras vidas sean una bendición para los demás y un reflejo del amor de Dios.
