OCIA

(Order of Christian Initiation of Adults)

Are you or someone you know interested in learning more about the Catholic faith? Perhaps you are thinking about what it means to be called to the Catholic way of life. The Church has a process called the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (O.C.I.A.) whereby adults can learn and discern whether to become Catholic Christians. The process leads an unbaptized adult to his or her baptism, usually at the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday. If the adult has been baptized in another Christian tradition, then the process prepares the person to be received into the Catholic Church by making a profession of faith as a Catholic. The process also prepares the way for someone who was baptized in the Catholic Church to receive First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

We are planning to start the OCIA process/program in the Fall.

If you'd like to add your name to our list of candidates for OCIA, or to know more about the OCIA process, or just have questions, please contact John Cusolito, Director of Faith Formation at jcusolito@ourladysaintpaul.org.

Praying before Christ in the Eucharist

By Mike Friseman

Jack W. Chan of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Church in Lansing is a natural-born, tried-and-true missionary pilgrim if there ever was one. Jack would most likely shy away from calling himself a “missionary,” but considering his past service and current function as the scheduling coordinator of the Holy Spirit Oratory 24-hour Adoration Chapel, he is indeed answering the call to “Go and make disciples,” wherever that may be.

Born a twin of Chinese parents in the Philippines, Jack immigrated to the United States in 1981 and shortly thereafter joined the U.S. Army, in which he served for 20 years. His travels would lead him closer and closer to the presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

Jack says, “I was stationed in four different U.S. bases in Germany. During this period, my family and I made it a point to travel and explore Europe, not only as tourists, but as pilgrims. We were blessed to have visited several Marian shrines as well as eucharistic miracle shrines.”

Jack’s unit was deployed to Saudi Arabia in November 1990 for Operations Desert Shield/Storm. During this time, he ministered to his fellow troops. “In spite of facing the fear of the unknown going to war, I was so much at peace; peace beyond understanding that the Bible talks about,” he says. “During my deployment, I volunteered as a lay eucharistic minister, conducting Communion service when a priest was not able to come to our remote location.

“After our pilgrimages to the eucharistic shrines, my belief in the true presence was solidified,” Jack says. “When we arrived in Lansing in 1999 we were attracted to the Immaculate Heart of Mary because of the close proximity of the adoration chapel. In 2008, the scheduler moved and asked me to take over, and I’ve been doing that ever since.”

Jack has his business cards ready to hand out to whomever might take up the call to prayer in adoration. Across the top reads the words of our Lord, “Could you not watch one hour with me?” serving as a reminder of the simplicity of it. Across the bottom are words of comfort for those who answer: “Come to me all of you ... and I will give you rest.”

Jack’s goal is to fill every spot every day, but he admits it is difficult to find volunteers, especially for the early morning hours. If anyone knows any night-owls in the area, he would be delighted to talk to them.

IPSWICH KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

The Knights of Columbus is the world's largest Catholic fraternal service organization. It was founded by the Venerable Father Michael J. McGivney in New Haven, Connecticut, in 1882, and named in honor of the navigator Christopher Columbus. Originally serving as a mutual benefit society to low-income immigrant Catholics, it developed into a fraternal service organization dedicated to providing charitable services, promoting Catholic education, and actively defending Catholicism in various nations.

The Knights of Columbus is not just a fraternity in name. It is a brotherhood of Catholic men who each play a part in improving the world around them, one community at a time. They are dedicated to upholding the principles they cherish: Charity, Unity, and Fraternity. The Knights stand together in faith and lend their support to the parish, home, and fellow Knights. From charity for worldwide causes, to helping closer to home with volunteer activities, to a top-rated insurance program that protects those closest to you, the Knights make the most of its brotherhood. All men in the parish are welcome and should consider joining the Knights of Columbus. We'd love to have you! Prayer for Our Country

God our Father, giver of life we entrust the United States of America to your loving care. You are the rock on which this nation was founded. You alone are the true source of our cherished rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Reclaim this land for your glory and dwell among your people. Send your Spirit to touch the hearts of our nation's leaders. Open their minds to the great worth of human life and the responsibilities that accompany freedom. Remind your people that true happiness is rooted in seeking and doing your will. Through the intercession of Mary Immaculate, patroness of our land, grant us the courage to reject the "culture of death". We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen
