DONATION FOR JANUARY 22, 2023

OFFERTORY: $ 2,676.00

CHURCH IN LATIN AMERICA: $1,142.00

THANK YOU TO ALL WHO GENEROUSLY SUPPORT OUR PARISH.

GRAND ANNUAL COLLECTION

The 2022-2023, Grand Annual Collection is well underway. If you did not receive a letter, there are extras on the exit tables of the Church and rectory porch. We are grateful to all who have already generously contributed to this important collection. As of this past weekend we have received $94,755.00 in donations.

The Grand Annual is a vital collection for the financial needs of the Parish. The success of our Capital Campaign allowed us to meet the expenses which were incurred from all the renovations. The Grand Annual will help us to continue to take care of the additional costs of running the Parish and keeping up with necessary repairs.

Saint Blaise

Saint Blaise is a bishop and martyr who lived in the fourth century in Turkey and Armenia. For a time, Blaise lived in a cave to escape persecution. On his feast the church recalls a miracle cure associated with him and celebrates the blessing of the throats. Blaise apparently saved the life of a boy who was choking on a fish bone. The saint said that anyone who lit a candle in his memory would be free of infection, thus candles are used in the traditional throat blessing. He is listed among the Fourteen Holy Helpers, saints revered as healers.

He is the patron saint of throat illnesses, animals, wool combers, and wool trading.

SPECIAL COLLECTIONS:

FUEL COLLECTION

The Fuel collection is a great help in funding the anticipated cost of the parish heat and utilities this winter. Thank you to all who have generously donated to this important fund $15,245.00. The collection continues to be taken up during the month of January. Donations can be mailed, put on rectory porch or dropped in the weekend collection baskets. Again, thank you in advance for your continued generosity to this important collection that supports Our Lady of Hope Parish.

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN

All volunteers who minister in the Archdiocese must attend the Protecting God's Children training and complete the Code of Conduct form. In addition, every year all current volunteers and new volunteers must complete a CORI Form. Our Lady of Hope has begun the process for CORI completion for all volunteers and forms are available at the exit of the hall. Contact the rectory office to verify your ID (driver's license or passport) once completed. There have been downsides to the Pandemic, but an upside has been online training sessions for the Protecting God's Children (Virtus) program. Which might be more convenient to those with busy schedules.

If you will be volunteering and have not yet attended a training, the Child Advocacy office is now providing 'live' weekly PGC trainings on Zoom through Virtus throughout the summer. Just go to the usual Virtus.org, the 'Live Training' tab and Pre-register for an upcoming live training session – and you will find the schedule for adults to complete their PGC requirement with the Archdiocese of Boston via Zoom (Braintree).

You will also see other Live sessions being offered in person throughout the diocese, so if you prefer; you can attend in person at others listed too. If you register for a training, please let us know once completed and forward a copy of your completion certificate to the rectory office.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is an organization of lay Catholics, following Christ's call to serve the poor, the suffering, and the deprived. Through home visits, Vincentian here at Our Lady of Hope Parish establish personal relationships with our neighbors in need, not only providing material assistance such as rent, utilities, food, or clothing, but also offering friendship, understanding, and prayer.

With your generous Poor Box donations we assist those neighbors in need. This past Christmas we delivered holiday gift cards, holiday cookies generously made by a members daughter, and poinsettias to almost two dozen homes. We also continued to meet and assist families struggling through financial hardships and assisting as we can.

Please consider the possibility joining us in 2023. We are a network of parishioners, friends, inspired by Gospel values, seeking to grow in holiness, volunteering in an effort to create a more Christ centered world through service to our neighbors in need. Please contact our President, Jim McCarthy, at jimccarthy8@gmail.com or phone on 978-992-6151 for more information regarding membership. In this new year your continued donations into the poor boxes at the church exits will allow us to continue our important mission on behalf of the Parish.

OUR LADY OF HOPE MEN'S GROUP

Our Lady of Hope Men's Group invites you to come join us Saturday mornings from 7:00 - 9:00 in the church hall, for light refreshments and Christian fellowship in an easy-going, informal atmosphere.

PARISH ROSARY GROUP

Praying the Rosary for those affected by abortion

Please join us every Tuesday at 7 PM in the upper Church for reciting the Rachel Rosary, intercessory prayer for victims of post-abortion syndrome. Rachel Rosary is a positive and appropriate means of praying for those affected by abortion. All are welcome to attend each week or as you are able.

VOCATIONS

Interested in learning how you can lend your talents to encouraging those men called to be holy priests? Want to explore vocational discernment, seminary life, and the life of seminarians and priests? IPSWICH KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

The Knights of Columbus is the world's largest Catholic fraternal service organization. It was founded by the Venerable Father Michael J. McGivney in New Haven, Connecticut, in 1882, and named in honor of the navigator Christopher Columbus. Originally serving as a mutual benefit society to low-income immigrant Catholics, it developed into a fraternal service organization dedicated to providing charitable services, promoting Catholic education, and actively defending Catholicism in various nations.

The Knights of Columbus is not just a fraternity in name. It is a brotherhood of Catholic men who each play a part in improving the world around them, one community at a time. They stand together in faith, dedicated to upholding the principles they cherish - Charity, Unity, and Fraternity - while lending their support and strength to parish, home, and fellow Knights. From charity for worldwide causes, to helping closer to home with volunteer activities, to a top-rated insurance program that protects those closest to you, the Knights make the most of its brotherhood. All men in the parish - young or old - are welcome and should consider joining the Knights of Columbus.

We'd love to have you! For more information on joining the Knights, please contact Jim Foley Grand Knight of Ipswich Council 498 at: Jamesfoley2233@gmail.com.

The Presentation of the Lord

The Presentation in the Temple, Alvaro Pérez Portuguese. The Met Museum

"We too are called to welcome Jesus who comes to meet us. To encounter him: the God of life is to be encountered every day of our lives; not now and then, but every day. To follow Jesus is not a decision taken once and for all, it is a daily choice." —Pope Francis, Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, 2019

The Presentation of Jesus in the temple shows him to be the firstborn Son who belongs to the Lord. With Simeon and Anna, all Israel awaits its encounter with the Savior—the name given to this event in the Byzantine tradition. Jesus is recognized as the long-expected Messiah, the "light of the nations" and the "glory of Israel," but also "a sign that is spoken against." The sword of sorrow predicted for Mary announces Christ's perfect and unique oblation on the cross that will impart the salvation of God has "prepared in the presence of all peoples" (CCC, no. 529).

World Day for Consecrated Life

In 1997, Pope Saint John Paul II instituted a day of prayer for women and men in consecrated life. This celebration is attached to the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on February 2nd. This Feast is also known as Candlemas Day; the day on which candles are blessed symbolizing Christ who is the light of the world. So too, those in consecrated life are called to reflect the light of Jesus Christ to all peoples. The celebration of World Day for Consecrated Life is transferred to the following Sunday in order to highlight the gift of consecrated persons for the whole Church. Please pray for all those who have made commitments in the consecrated life and be sure to thank them on their special day. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation.

BULLETIN INSERT

ST. PAUL CENTER FOR BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

By Dr. Scott Hahn
The Blessed Path

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time (Cycle A)

Zephaniah 2:3; 3:12-13

Psalms 146:6-10

1 Corinthians 1:26-31

Matthew 5:1-12

In the readings since Christmas, Jesus has been revealed as the new royal son of David and Son of God. He is sent to lead a new exodus that brings Israel out of captivity to the nations and brings all the nations to God.

As Moses led Israel from Egypt through the sea to give them God's law on Mount Sinai, Jesus too has passed through the waters in baptism. Now, in today's Gospel, He goes to the mountain to proclaim a new law - the law of His Kingdom.

The Beatitudes mark the fulfillment of God's covenant promise to Abraham - that through his descendants all the nations of the world would receive God's blessings (see Genesis 12:3; 22:18).

Jesus is the son of Abraham (see Matthew 1:1). And through the wisdom He speaks today, He bestows the Father's blessings upon "the poor in spirit."

God has chosen to bless the weak and lowly, those foolish and despised in the eyes of the world, Paul says in today's Epistle. The poor in spirit are those who know that nothing they do can merit God's mercy and grace. These are the humble remnant in today's First Reading - taught to seek refuge in the name of the Lord.

The Beatitudes reveal the divine path and purpose for our lives. All our striving should be for these virtues - to be poor in spirit; meek and clean of heart; merciful and makers of peace; seekers of the righteousness that comes from living by the law of Kingdom.

The path the Lord sets before us today is one of trials and persecution. But He promises comfort in our mourning and a great reward.

The Kingdom we have inherited is no earthly territory, but the promised land of heaven. It is Zion where the Lord reigns forever. And, as we sing in today's Psalm, its blessings are for those whose hope is in the Lord.

PARENTING JOURNEY

By Sheri Wohlfert

CREATING STRONG CATHOLIC HOMES

Home is where the seeds of Christ's love are planted and nurtured. In a culture that often works against Christian values, the home becomes the greenhouse for growing strong, thriving, bold disciples who are equipped with the sturdy roots that allow them to live their lives according to the Father's plan. In this column, we will offer some ideas to create Catholic homes that foster strong roots of faith and discipleship.

Because our faith stretches far beyond Sunday Mass, as Catholic Christians we are called to believe and be visible signs of Jesus in action all the days of the week. This begins in the home. If we want our family lives to foster these strong roots of faith, let us consider how we can bring that about.

Seeing Christ in our homes

Nearly every home has family pictures; they serve as witnesses to our belonging. They are a visual reminder of "our people" and the love we have for each other. Since we need to make sure there is a reminder of who loves us most and whose family we truly belong to, every Catholic home needs a crucifix. I used to tell my kids that the crucifix showed the greatest story of sacrifice and love ever known. On a hard day, it reminds us the hardest work has already been done. On a lonely, disappointing day, it reminds us that we are loved beyond measure and it always gives us cause to be grateful. Gratitude produces joy, and our homes can always use more joy!

Holy heroes should have a place in our homes. Pictures or statues of saints remind us that we have powerful, heavenly help just waiting to intercede for us. The world is quick to put role models before our children, but they don't often point them heavenward. The saints not only intercede for us and cheer us on toward holiness, but their stories offer us hope, inspiration and direction. These are stories our children need to hear.

Great grace and protection come from blessing your family daily with holy water. Visible signs of prayer such as the Bible, prayer books and rosaries are great reminders to include family prayer in our busy days. Age-appropriate versions of these reminders are ideal in every bedroom. Seeing parents that read Scripture and spend quiet time in prayer will inspire children to spend time doing likewise.

Hearing Christ in our homes

Any parent can relate to the sometimes exhausting sound of "MOM" or "DAD" called over and over again like it was stuck on repeat, but how many times do we hear our heavenly Father's name in our homes? We ask each other for help and we pour out our frustrations, successes and challenges to each other, but do our homes echo with the sound of speaking our thanks, our needs and our joys to God? There is no greater sound in a Christian home than the sound of voices calling out the name of Jesus in prayer and conversation.

The world would change if the sound of the Father's name was spoken more often. Praying before meals should be as automatic as picking up a fork. Hearing family voices praying in the morning and at night fills the home with grace. When our children are fretful and worried, peaceful Scripture reading or quiet prayer together not only brings sweeter sleep but a calmer mind. Phrases such as, "I'm sorry," "I love you," "please forgive me," "thank you" and "Jesus we trust in you" fill our hearts and ears with the love and mercy of the Father.

The world can be filled with some ugly sounds, so the truth of Jesus and his unending, unconditional love for us should be heard loud enough and often enough to counterbalance the noises that are not of the Father.

BIBLE DETECTIVE

See what you can discover for yourself about the background to the readings.

THE BOOK OF ISAIAH

The Church has always seen this passage from Isaiah as a reference to the coming of Jesus. (He was the "great light.")

Can you find where the "land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali" were?

The passage refers to "the day of Midian." That event had happened long before, when an enemy nation known as Midian had been oppressing the Israelites. An Israelite hero called Gideon had, with a tiny force, managed to defeat the Midianite army. The story of Gideon is in the Book of Judges in the Bible. See what you can find out about him.
