

This Week's Message
from Fr. Amesse
November 2, 2025

Dear Friends,

In less than two weeks—on Tuesday, November 12 at 7:00 p.m.—Saint Joseph the Worker Shrine will host an incredibly special evening of music and inspiration with composer and performer Eric Genuis. I want to personally invite you to join us for this extraordinary event.

If you've never experienced an Eric Genuis concert, you are in for something truly remarkable. His music is powerful, moving, and faith-filled—it touches the soul in ways that words cannot. Eric performs with world-class musicians, blending piano, strings, and voice to create an evening that uplifts, heals, and reminds us of the beauty of God's presence in our lives. Many who have attended his concerts describe the experience as transformative — a moment of grace and renewal.

This concert is not only a gift for the heart — it is also a gift to our Shrine. The proceeds will directly support the first phase of our capital improvement campaign as we work to repair our stained-glass windows, roof, and air conditioning system. These are essential steps toward preserving this sacred space so that the Oblates can continue serving the people of Lowell for generations to come.

Tickets are available now, and I urge you to purchase yours soon—either after Mass, online through the Shrine's website, or by calling the Shrine office. Bring your family, invite a friend, or give a ticket as a gift — it will be an evening to remember, filled with music, hope, and community.

Let's come together in faith and joy to support the Shrine we love so dearly. I look forward to seeing you there!

I remember you at Mass!
