A Message from Our Parish Administrator

THANK YOU, ICC!

Two years ago (on January 20, 2021) I was assigned to Immaculate Conception Parish as the new Parochial Vicar, and 6 months later became the Parish Administrator.

Since then, you have all shown me the love and respect that ICC has always been known for, and I am grateful. It was a difficult time for many people, continuing to say goodbye to the Jesuit priests who had built this parish and served it faithfully since its beginning, and many people didn't quite know what to think about the parish being administered by diocesan clergy.

But here we are, continuing to grow and to minister to each other, all for the greater honor and glory of God.

~~ Fr. Steve

May They Rest in Peace ~ Let us keep our recently deceased brothers and sisters in our prayers.

✠ Stephen F. Griego (age 69). Rosary/Vigil: Thursday, January 19, 6pm. Funeral: Friday, January 20, 9:30am. Both events will be at Immaculate Conception.

✠ Dorothy Marie Howard (age 92). Omega Omega Sorority Vigil Service, Saturday, January 28, 9:30am. Funeral Mass, Saturday, January 28, 12:30pm. Both events will be at Immaculate Conception.

Next Sunday's Readings

The Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Sunday, January 22,
2023

This Sunday's Readings

FIRST READING: Isaiah 8: 23-9: 3

The people in darkness have seen a great light.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 27: 1,4, 13-14

The Lord is our refuge, our light, our salvation.

SECOND READING: 1 Corinthians 1: 10-13, 17

Paul urges the community at Corinth to be united as people baptized in Christ's name.

GOSPEL READING: Matthew 4: 12-23

Jesus begins to preach in Galilee and calls his first disciples.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING: Today's Gospel describes the beginning of Jesus' public ministry. In the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke (called the Synoptic Gospels), Jesus' public ministry begins after his baptism by John the Baptist and after his retreat to the desert where he was tempted by the devil. When Jesus returns from the desert, he hears that John has been arrested.

The first part of today's Gospel places Jesus' ministry in the context of the writings of the prophet, Isaiah. Matthew wants to show that Jesus is the fulfillment of the prophecies given to the people of Israel, and he refers to Isaiah to do so. Isaiah says that the Messiah will begin his ministry in Galilee, the land of the Gentiles. When Jesus begins to preach in Galilee, Matthew points to his ministry as a fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecy, proof that Jesus is the Messiah.

When Jesus called his first disciples, the Gospel tells us that the fishermen (Peter and Andrew, James and John) dropped everything to follow Jesus immediately. Yet this Gospel tells us little about the prior experience that the fishermen had of Jesus. Did they know him? Had they heard him preach? What kind of person must Jesus have been to invoke such a response? We can imagine that Jesus was a powerful presence to elicit a response as immediate and complete as these first disciples gave.

The Gospel concludes with a description of the ministry that Jesus begins in Galilee. Jesus inaugurates the Kingdom of God with his work. He teaches in the synagogue and preaches the kingdom. His ability to cure people's diseases and illness is a sign of the kingdom. In Jesus' ministry, we already begin to see the Kingdom of God among us.

Ongoing Activities

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Religious Classes resume today, Sunday, January 8. Classes run from 11:15am to 12:15pm each Sunday following the 10am Mass. Remember that attendance at Mass is an important part of the catechism.

Weekend conversation starter --

NAMETAGS. Look for the nametag tables as you enter the church for your weekend Mass. As a way of inviting a conversation with a stranger, put your first name on a nametag.

After the 10am mass, we will use a TED talk to help start conversations once you've grabbed your coffee or tea. Each week a TED talk will be chosen by parishioners for the following Sunday. You will receive an email about the selection if you currently are receiving the parish bulletin by email. Watch the TED talk ahead of time, or watch it with your coffee after Mass. Then join in the conversation.

The class meets each Monday from 6pm to 7:30pm in the basement Parish Hall. (Use the Parish Office door on Copper Avenue)

For more information contact Sr. Teresa through the Parish Office.

BOOK READING GROUP

The Book Reading Group meets Wednesdays, 6pm to 7pm. On January 4, we will begin to read Thomas Merton's *The Seven Storey Mountain.

The Seven Storey Mountain tells of the growing restlessness of a brilliant and passionate young man, who at the age of twenty-six, takes vows in one of the most demanding Catholic orders—the Trappist monks.

At the Abbey of Gethsemani, "the four walls of my new freedom," Thomas Merton struggles to withdraw from the world, but only after he has fully immersed himself in it.

At the abbey, he wrote this extraordinary testament, a unique spiritual autobiography that has been recognized as one of the most influential religious works of our time. Translated into more than twenty languages, it has touched millions of lives." (Amazon.com).

The book can be purchased from booksellers or borrowed from your local library. It is available in hardcover, paper, and in electronic format (Kindle, Audible, etc.).

If you are or know of any person living within our parish boundaries who needs any rent or utility assistance, please have them contact our parish Society of St. Vincent de Paul through the Parish Office or email iccabqsvdp@gmail.com.

SSVDP assistance is available to everyone in need. They do not need to be registered parishioners or Catholic to qualify.

Spelling Bee

St. Mary's School students in grades 4-8 powered through the practice round without a hitch, all effortlessly rattling off the letters of their assigned words in perfect order.

As the rounds progressed there were fewer and fewer students remaining.

Finally, it was time for the highly anticipated final round. Kai Gachupin (7th grade) and Gloria Guerin (8th grade) duelled words back and forth until finally Gloria was declared the winner.

Congratulations to all of the participants. We are so proud of you!!

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Volunteers are needed before each week-end mass to encourage those attending mass to make a nametag for themselves so we can get to know each other.

For more information or to volunteer, contact Patrick O'Meara, pomearanm@gmail.com

Inspired by the teachings of Jesus in Matthew 25 ("for I was hungry and you gave me food. . ."), Francis House Catholic Worker embraces a two-pronged mission to serve both the unhoused in some of Albuquerque's poorest neighborhoods, and refugees fleeing poverty and violence at our southern doorstep.

Francis House always needs regular volunteers and substitutes to prepare and deliver sandwiches and soups from home. On site, volunteers serve our guests, package bread, crackers, cookies and other tasks. We are open Fridays through Tuesdays.

Call Linda (505-515-6241) or Glenn (505-489-8100) if interested in joining this dynamic ministry. We are located at 8016-A Zuni SE. You can donate to us tax-free through the ICCABQ.org online giving bottom in the lower right hand corner.

St. Benedict Joseph Labre Ministry serves the homeless and others in need with care packages that you and other parishioners can hand out from your vehicle when you encounter a person asking for money. We ask your help to:

- ✧ Create or provide supplies for the care packages;
- ✧ Make the care packages;
- ✧ Take the care packages with you at the end of your Sunday mass so you may hand them out.

Commonly needed items are: Protein bars, Granola, breakfast bars, snack bags of nuts, water cartons, (for environmental purposes), toothpaste, toothbrushes, Personal Cleansing Cloths, Woman's personal hygiene products, Chap stick, Socks (for winter), Gloves (for winter), hand lotion, anything that can be placed in a 1-gallon zip lock bag, so long as it is not bulky; and 1-gallon zip lock bags.

For information, call Phyllis Ortiz at 505-231-5902.

After a long break, we are starting the Communion to the Homebound program again. Volunteers are needed to take communion to those who cannot join us at Mass. We also need a list of those parishioners who would like to receive Holy Communion at home.

Call the Parish Office and leave a message for Maria Armijo to set up training or to assign you to an homebound communicant.

VOLUNTEER PARISH POSITIONS AVAILABLE ~~

Videographers Needed. If you are interested in helping to stream, the 10am and 12:30pm Sunday Masses, please let Fr. Steve know by calling the Parish Office at 505-247-4271 or by email at srosera@iccabq.org.

Streaming the Mass is fairly easy, and most of the setup is already in place. The work involves redirecting the camera during the Mass so that it focuses on the action taking place. This is a volunteer position.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES has many volunteer opportunities. However, the greatest need is for Senior Transportation Drivers.

Help us respond to trip requests from seniors, 60 + years of age and ambulatory, who simply want to maintain their independence. Drivers provide transportation to medical appointments, light grocery shopping, and government offices. Volunteers set their own schedule and zip code destination.

Contact: Linda Seabrooks at (505) 724-4634 or at seabrooksl@ccasnm.org

IMMIGRANTS IN EL PASO ~

As you may have seen, read, or heard, El Paso is dealing with a great influx of immigrants. Many receive services at Sacred Heart, the Jesuit Parish in the Segundo Barrio. (You can watch Fr. Rafael's interview with CNN on our Facebook page from our website.)

"We've been ministering to immigrants since the parish was founded," said Rafael García, SJ, pastor. "This is simply the most recent example of that ministry."
