HVAC RENOVATION PROJECT TO RESTART

Beginning the week after Easter, we will resume the major overhaul of our heating/ventilation/air-conditioning (HVAC) system. This will entail turning the heat off in the church. While April afternoons are expected to be very nice, the early mornings can still get chilly. Please bring a sweater or light jacket with you to Mass after Easter.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY CELEBRATING GOD'S MERCIFUL LOVE AT 3PM ON SUNDAY MAY 16

In the Jubilee Year 2000, Pope John Paul II proclaimed that from that year forward the Second Sunday of Easter would be celebrated as Divine Mercy Sunday. This was proclaimed at the Canonization Mass of St. Faustina Kawalska, who worked throughout her life to make all aware of the merciful love of God. St. Faustina (1905–1938) was born and raised in Poland. Following a vocation to religious life, she was accepted by the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy. As a member of the Congregation, she worked as a cook, gardener, and porter. In her spiritual life, her contemplation on the Mercy of God led her to develop a childlike trust in God and deep love for her neighbor. Learn more about St. Faustina. In her years in the convent, St. Faustina heard a call from God to make God's mercy known to the world so that the world may more fully receive God's healing grace. St. Faustina promoted the Chaplet of Divine Mercy which consists of the recitation of prayers to the Eternal Father with the use of the rosary for the sake of Christ's sorrowful passion. May They Rest in Peace ~ Let us keep our recently deceased brothers and sisters in our prayers.

Next Sunday's Readings

2nd Sunday of Easter;
Divine Mercy Sunday
Sunday, April 16, 2023

This Sunday's Readings

FIRST READING: Acts of the Apostles 2: 42-47

The first community of Christians grows as its members meet to pray and break bread.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 118: 2-4, 13-15, 22-24

God's love is everlasting.

SECOND READING: 1 Peter 1: 3-9

We have new hope because of Jesus' Resurrection.

GOSPEL READING: John 20: 19-31

Thomas believes because he sees Jesus.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING: The Gospels tell us that Jesus appeared to the disciples on several occasions after they discovered that his tomb was empty. Part of the mystery of Jesus' Resurrection is that he appeared to his disciples not as a spirit but in bodily form. The bodily form was not one that the disciples recognized though. In John's Gospel, Mary of Magdala does not recognize that the figure standing before her is Jesus until he speaks to her. In Luke's Gospel the disciples who meet Jesus on the road to Emmaus do not recognize him until he breaks bread with them. The resurrected Jesus had a physical presence, but the disciples couldn't recognize Jesus unless he allowed them to. His resurrected body, nonetheless, showed the marks of his crucifixion.

From readings such as today's Gospel, we also see that in his resurrected body, Jesus seems to be free of physical constraints. He appears to the disciples despite the fact that the doors were locked.

Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace and the gift of the Holy Spirit. In doing so, Jesus commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun: "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." During the meeting, Jesus also shows the integral connection between forgiveness of sins and the gift of the Holy Spirit.

The story of Thomas illustrates our Christian experience today: We are called to believe without seeing. In fact, all Christians after the first witnesses have been called to believe without seeing. Thomas's doubt is hardly surprising; the news of Jesus' appearance was incredible to the disciples who had seen him crucified and buried.

THE JOY OF EASTER PRAYER

Oh, dear Lord, when I first learned about your Crucifixion, fear was in my heart.

Knowing what they did to you is hard to understand. I was worried that we lost you but trusted, this was planned.

Now, I understand the joy your painful path would bring. Now, I know your sacrifice that we rejoice and sing.

Behold the joy of Easter, the miracle we were shown. Rejoice your Resurrection, our faith forever sown. Amen

He is Risen! Alleluia!

St. Mary's Catholic School wishes all Immaculate Conception parishioners and our priests a very blessed Easter.

We are grateful for your continued prayers and support.

Easter brings new joy in our hearts and new life.

May you and your family be blest with love, joy and hope as you celebrate the true meaning of Easter.

Easter Blessings,

St. Mary's Catholic School Staff and Students

Thomas's human nature compelled him to want hard evidence that the Jesus who appeared to the disciples after his death was indeed the same Jesus who had been crucified. Thomas is given the opportunity to act on that desire. He is our witness that Jesus is really risen.

Our faith is based on the witness of the Church that has preceded us, beginning with Thomas and the first disciples. Through Baptism we receive the same Holy Spirit that Jesus brought to the first disciples. We are among those who are "blessed" because we believe without having seen.

EASTER:

THE STORY OF HOPE AND HEALING

Throughout Jesus' ministry he recognized the dignity of women, and this was counter-cultural for his time. Jesus loved and associated with women, even those who were afflicted with sin or illness.

Mary Magdalene, must have suffered severely from illness or psychological trauma for Jesus to have performed an exorcism which cast out seven demons. Mary's devotion to Jesus because of this healing was very strong. She journeyed with Jesus from a place of suffering and torment to a place of life-changing healing and faith. She became the "apostle to the apostles."

Easter is about mercy and healing afflictions from sin or illness and restoration of dignity and whole-ness. If you are suffering from grief from abortion, call the confidential Project Rachel message line at 505-831-
