

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY
CELEBRATING GOD'S MERCIFUL LOVE
AT 3PM TODAY - Sunday April 16.

In the Jubilee Year 2000, Pope John Paul II proclaimed that from that year forward the Second Sunday of Easter would be celebrated as Divine Mercy Sunday. This was proclaimed at the Canonization Mass of St. Faustina Kawalska, who worked throughout her life to make all aware of the merciful love of God. St. Faustina (1905–1938) was born and raised in Poland. Following a vocation to religious life, she was accepted by the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy. As a member of the Congregation, she worked as a cook, gardener, and porter. In her spiritual life, her contemplation on the Mercy of God led her to develop a childlike trust in God and deep love for her neighbor. Learn more about St. Faustina.

In her years in the convent, St. Faustina heard a call from God to make God's mercy known to the world so that the world may more fully receive God's healing grace. St. Faustina promoted the Chaplet of Divine Mercy which consists of the recitation of prayers to the Eternal Father with the use of the rosary for the sake of Christ's sorrowful passion. HVAC RENOVATION PROJECT TO RESTART

Beginning this week, we will resume the major overhaul of our heating/ventilation/air-conditioning (HVAC) system. This will entail turning the heat off in the church. While April afternoons are expected to be very nice, the early mornings can still get chilly. Please bring a sweater or light jacket with you to Mass.

Next Sunday's Readings

The Third Sunday of Easter
Sunday, April 23, 2023

This Sunday's Readings

FIRST READING: Acts 2: 14, 22-33; Peter and the apostles announce that Jesus has been raised from the dead.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 16: 1-2, 5, 7-11
God will show us the path of life.

SECOND READING: 1 Peter 1: 17-21
You were saved by Christ's sacrifice.

GOSPEL READING: Luke 24: 13-35; Jesus appears to two disciples who are walking to Emmaus.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING: On most Sundays during the Easter season in Cycle A, our Gospel is taken from the Gospel of John. This week's Gospel, however, is taken from the Gospel of Luke. As in last week's Gospel, today's Gospel shows us how the first community of disciples came to believe that Jesus had risen from the dead. In these stories we gain insight into how the community of the Church came to be formed.

When we read today's Gospel, we may be surprised to learn that these friends of Jesus could walk and converse with him at some length yet not recognize him. Again we discover that the risen Jesus is not always easily recognized. Cleopas and the other disciple walk with a person whom they believe to be a stranger; only later do they discover that the stranger is Jesus. We learn that the first community met and recognized Jesus in the breaking of the bread, just as we meet Jesus in the Eucharist.

We can imagine the feelings of the two disciples in today's reading. They are leaving their community in Jerusalem. Their friend Jesus has been crucified. Their hope is gone. They are trying to make sense of what has occurred, so that they can put the experience behind them.

Jesus himself approaches the two men, but they take him for a stranger. Jesus asks them what they are discussing. He invites them to share their experience and interpretation of the events surrounding his crucifixion and death. When the two disciples have done so, Jesus offers his own interpretation of his crucifixion and resurrection, citing Jewish Scripture. In that encounter we find the model for our Liturgy of the Word—what we do each time we gather as a community for the Eucharist. ~ ~ Continued on Page 6, bottom right column.

REV. J. PATRICK HOUGH, SJ, CELEBRATES MASS OF THANKSGIVING

What return shall I make to the Lord for all He has given to me? I will take the chalice of salvation, and call upon the Name of the Lord. Praising I will call upon the Lord, and I will be saved. Psalm 116

"This scripture passage sums up my principal desire to gather with you at Mass today. I wish to give thanks to God with you for his marvels in rescuing me. Your presence here today is deeply consoling to me and a sign of the strength of your faith" said Fr. Hough. On March 26, 2023, the 5th Sunday of Lent at the Church of the Most Holy Name of Jesus, New Orleans. Fr. Hough celebrated a Mass of Thanksgiving. He was exonerated of the false accusation made against him; the truth prevailed. For 4 years, Fr. Hough relied on his faith in God; and, through his prayers and sacrifices, he is now able, to proceed with his Jesuit ministry. Our parish was well represented at a weekend of joyous gatherings. Fr. Hough wants to thank all of you who prayed for him and who never lost hope. He will continue to pray for his accuser and asks that you do the same.

Holy Week

And so, Lent is over and we joyfully rejoice in the Lord's resurrection.

St. Mary's Students began the Lent season with the Burning of the Palms and ended with the Living Stations and a Last Supper reenactment during the most sacred week of the year, Holy Week. The 8th graders, in a moveable presentation, reenacted the Lord's passion and then on Holy Thursday reenacted the Last Supper. Our principal washed the feet of several students saying "I am a servant to all."

We reflect upon our life experiences and interpret them in light of Scripture. We gather together to break open the Word of God.

In the next part of the story, we find a model for our Liturgy of the Eucharist. The disciples invite the stranger (Jesus) to stay with them. During the meal in which they share in the breaking of the bread, the disciples' eyes are opened; they recognize the stranger as Jesus. In the Eucharist too we share in the breaking of the bread and discover Jesus in our midst. Just as the disciples returned to Jerusalem to recount their experience to the other disciples, we too are sent from our Eucharistic gathering. Our experience of Jesus in the Eucharist compels us to share the story with others.
