Next Sunday's Readings

The Fourth Sunday of Easter
Cycle A

Sunday, April 30, 2023

This Sunday's Readings

FIRST READING: Acts of the Apostles 2: 14a, 36-41
Peter and the other apostles baptize 3,000 people.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 23: 1-6
The Lord is my shepherd.

SECOND READING: 1 Peter 2: 20b-25
We have been healed by the wounds of Christ.

GOSPEL READING: John 10: 1-10
Jesus is the gate for his sheep.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING: This fourth Sunday of the Easter season is sometimes called Good Shepherd Sunday because in each of the three lectionary cycles, the Gospel reading invites us to reflect on Jesus as the Good Shepherd. In each cycle the reading is from the tenth chapter of John's Gospel. This chapter sets the framework for Jesus' teaching about himself as the Good Shepherd.

Today's reading falls between the stories of Jesus' healing of the man born blind and the raising of Lazarus. Both of these stories were proclaimed in the Gospels found in this year's season of Lent. Following the controversy that ensued when Jesus healed the man born blind, Jesus directs his allegory about the sheep and the shepherd toward the Jewish religious leaders of his time, the Pharisees.

Throughout John's Gospel the Pharisees fail to accept Jesus' ministry and teaching. They show themselves to be "robbers and thieves" because they try to lead the sheep without entering through the gate, Jesus. Through these metaphors, Jesus is telling his listeners that those who follow him and his way will find abundant life. He identifies himself both as the shepherd and the gate. The shepherds who are faithful to him are the ones whom the sheep (Jesus' disciples) should follow.

The relationship the sheep and their shepherd is based on familiarity. Sheep recognize their shepherd and will not follow a stranger. At the end of the day, shepherds lead their sheep from pastures to a common gated area called a sheepfold. There, one shepherd protects all of the sheep until the next day when each shepherd returns to lead his own sheep to pasture. As shepherds move among the sheep, the sheep follow only their shepherd.

Today's Gospel also gives us the opportunity to reflect on Christian leadership. Jesus' words suggest to us that those who will lead the Christian community will be known by their faithfulness to Jesus. The leaders will recognize that Jesus is the gate for all of the sheep and that having a good relationship with Jesus is the primary characteristic of a Christian leader. Jesus' allegory also suggests that faithful Christian leadership requires a good relationship with the community: the shepherd knows his sheep, and they know him. Christian leaders follow the example of Jesus, the Good Shepherd, by being faithful to him and by being a good shepherd.

CELEBRATE ST. JOSEPH THE WORKER DAY AND WORLD LABOR DAY ON MAY 1

May Day has long been dedicated as a special day for labor and working people. The feast of St. Joseph the Worker was established by Pope Pius XII in 1955 to give all workers a model and a protector. Catholic social teaching supports the dignity of work and the rights of workers. If the dignity of work is to be protected, then the basic rights of workers must be respected: the right to productive work, to decent and fair wages, to organize and join unions, to private property, and to economic initiative. Respecting these rights promotes an economy that protects human life, defends human rights, and advances the well-being of all. The Catholic Bishops of the United States have long held that the most effective way to build a just economy is to make decent work at decent wages available for all those capable of working. When the economy fails to generate sufficient jobs, there is a moral obligation to protect the life and dignity of unemployed and underemployed workers and their families.

Pope Francis said, "I address a strong appeal from my heart that the dignity and safety of the worker always be protected" (Pope Francis, Regina Caeli, 4/28/13).

SOCIAL ACTION SUMMER INSTITUTE IN ATLANTA: OUT OF THE SHADOWS:

SHINING A LIGHT ON HUMAN TRAFFICKING

This issue demonstrates how the entire community must come together to put an end to human trafficking. Watch for more information here: <https://www.catholicroundtable.org/events/social-action-summer-institute-sasi>.
