We want to remind you and extend the invitation for the potluck next Sunday, May 7 at 1:30pm in the Rectory courtyard.

The Apostleship of Prayer

Apostles of Prayer offer themselves to God each day for the good of the world, the Church, one another, and the Holy Father's Intentions.

Begin with A Daily Offering:

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in unity with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world.

I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sins, and the reunion of all Christians.

I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and all the Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month. ~ Amen

Then, pray with the Pope for his intention each month:

MAY ~ FOR CHURCH MOVEMENTS AND GROUPS

We pray that Church movements and groups may rediscover their mission of evangelization each day, placing their own charisms at the service of needs in the world.

Next Sunday's Readings

The Fifth Sunday of Easter, Cycle A
Sunday, May 7, 2023

This Sunday's Reading

FIRST READING: Acts of the Apostles 6: 1-7

The early Christian community chooses seven people to serve at table so that the Twelve can devote themselves to prayer and the ministry of the word.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 33: 1-2, 4-5, 18-19

The Lord is merciful toward those who trust in him.

SECOND READING: 1 Peter 2: 4-9; Those who have faith are chosen in Christ to be a holy priesthood.

GOSPEL READING: John 14: 1-12; Jesus tells his disciples, "I am the way and the truth and the life."

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING: The readings for the last few Sundays have been about the Resurrection, but today's Gospel takes us back in time to an event in Jesus' life before his Passion. Jesus tells his disciples that he is going to prepare a place for them in his Father's house. He promises that where he is going, his disciples will be able to follow. Thomas, who will later doubt the disciples' reports that they have seen the Risen Lord, contradicts Jesus by saying that the disciples don't know where Jesus is going or how to get there. Jesus explains that he himself is the way, the truth, and the life. In knowing and loving Jesus, the disciples now love God the Father.

Philip then makes a request that challenges Jesus' words. Philip wants Jesus to show the Father to the disciples. Recall that Jesus has just told his disciples, "If you know me, then you will also know my Father. From now on you do know him and have seen him." As a good teacher, Jesus responds to Philip by repeating and elaborating on what he has just told the disciples: they have seen and known Jesus, so they have seen and known the Father. Then Jesus offers another reassurance about his departure: because of faith in God and in Jesus, the disciples will do the work that Jesus has done and more.

The connection between Jesus and his Father, between Jesus' work and the work of the Father, is made clear in today's Gospel. Jesus is in the Father, and God the Father is in Jesus. As God spoke his name to Moses, "I am," so too Jesus speaks his name to his disciples: "I am the way and the truth and the life."

The revelation of the Trinity is completed in the passage that follows today's reading, and it is the Gospel for next Sunday. Because Jesus goes away, the Father will send in Jesus' name the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, who will continue the work of the Father and of Jesus.

Gym Floor Dedication to Sister Marianella Domenici, SC

You are invited to come to the "unveiling" of our new gym floor on Friday, May 12th at 6pm.

Following the dedication to Sister Marianella, our former school principal, there will be a basketball game... St. Mary's School alumni (all ages welcome) versus our current basketball team.

Sister Marianella once told me that her job as school principal was an exercise in love. She called each of her faculty and students her "love doves." I remember being out to eat with her when a former student came to our table. As I was struggling to recall the student's name, she did not and immediately greeted her by name. She developed strong caring relationships with the students and their families. We always thanked her for letting us be her love doves. It was her joyful heart that made us all feel so special and wanted.

Please join us in honoring our special love dove.

CELEBRATE ST. JOSEPH THE WORKER DAY AND WORLD LABOR DAY ON MAY 1

May Day has long been dedicated as a special day for labor and working people. The feast of St. Joseph the Worker was established by Pope Pius XII in 1955 to give all workers a model and a protector. Catholic social teaching supports the dignity of work and the rights of workers. If the dignity of work is to be protected, then the basic rights of workers must be respected: the right to productive work, to decent and fair wages, to organize and join unions, to private property, and to economic initiative. Respecting these rights promotes an economy that protects human life, defends human rights, and advances the well-being of all. The Catholic Bishops of the United States have long held that the most effective way to build a just economy is to make decent work at decent wages available for all those capable of working. When the economy fails to generate sufficient jobs, there is a moral obligation to protect the life and dignity of unemployed and underemployed workers and their families.

Pope Francis said, "I address a strong appeal from my heart that the dignity and safety of the worker always be protected" (Pope Francis, Regina Caeli, 4/28/13).

Learn more about Catholic teaching on workers' rights by visiting <http://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/human-life-and-dignity/labor-employment/index.cfm#primers>.

CELEBRATE LAUDATO SI' WEEK FROM MAY 21 TO 28, 2023

Laudato Si' Week will mark the 8th anniversary of Pope Francis' landmark encyclical on care for creation. This global celebration will unite Catholics to rejoice in the progress we have made in bringing Laudato Si' to life, and show how the protagonists of The Letter are already doing so. The theme for this year is Hope for the Earth. Hope for Humanity. Learn more about Laudato Si' Week here: <https://laudatosiweek.org/>.

WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED: HEROIC MOTHERS

The Catholic Church is compassionate toward mothers who choose life despite challenging circumstances such as poverty and singleness. Motherhood for such women can mean social isolation. They may not have the loving support of family and friends, or other resources they need to successfully raise a healthy family.

Walking with Moms in Need

Thankfully, our parishes are full of life-loving people who can welcome and befriend moms who are pregnant or who are parenting young children, provide them support and help guide them toward self-sufficiency. During the month of May, in celebration of mothers, in what way can you, your friends, family and parish bless a pregnant or parenting mother in need? Proverbs 31:25: "She is clothed with strength and dignity, and laughs at the days to come."

Our Archdiocese supports WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED in parishes, and encourages parishes to adopt this ministry of referral. All information can be found here, <https://archdiosf.org/walking-with-moms-in-need> including training videos, prayers, ideas for parishes along with a resource list.

OUT OF THE SHADOWS:

SHINING A LIGHT ON HUMAN TRAFFICKING

The annual Social Action Summer Institute will be taking place in-person at Emory University in Atlanta from Wednesday to Saturday July 12-15.

This year's theme is OUT OF THE SHADOWS: SHINING A LIGHT ON HUMAN TRAFFICKING. Programming will emphasize the various facets of human trafficking, including sex, labor and migrant trafficking, as well as how the Catholic Church, people of faith and/or community organizations respond to this pro-life issue. This issue demonstrates how the entire community must come together to put an end to human trafficking.
