May They Rest in Peace ~ Let us keep our recently deceased brothers and sisters in our prayers.

✧ Anthony Romero. The Funeral is tentatively scheduled for Saturday, May 20, 9am.

✧ Father Joseph M. Vanderholt, SJ, died May 6, 2023, in Land O'Lakes, Fla. He was 85 years old, a Jesuit for 67 years and a priest for 54 years. Recalled by his Jesuit brothers as a priest of humble demeanor and a kind and gentle confessor, his Mass of Christian Burial has been celebrated. His burial will take place in the Jesuit cemetery at St. Charles College in Grand Coteau, La.

Joseph Vanderholt was born in Beaumont, Texas, on June 17, 1937. He was predeceased by his parents, Charles and Helen Donahue Vanderholt, and his two brothers, Charles Vanderholt, Jr., and the Rev. Monsignor James Vanderholt. He is survived by a niece and his brothers in the Society of Jesus.

He entered the Jesuit novitiate in Grand Coteau on Sept. 7, 1955. He pronounced first vows on Sept. 8, 1957, and he was ordained to the priesthood at Sacred Heart Cathedral in Dallas, on June 1, 1968.

Next Sunday's Readings

Ascension Sunday,
Cycle A
Sunday, May 21, 2023

Next Sunday's Readings

FIRST READING: Acts of the Apostles 1: 1-11; Jesus is taken up to heaven in the presence of the apostles.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 47: 2-3, 6-9

Sing praise to God as he mounts his throne.

SECOND READING: Ephesians 1: 17-23; God raised Jesus from the dead and seated him at his right hand.

GOSPEL READING: Matthew 28: 16-20

Jesus charges his disciples to make disciples of all nations and promises to be with them forever.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING: Today's Gospel is taken from the conclusion of the Gospel of Matthew. Matthew's Gospel quickly moves from the disciples' discovery of Jesus' empty tomb, to Jesus' appearance to Mary Magdalene and the other Mary, to the commission that Jesus gives his disciples in today's Gospel.

The Final Commission, as this Gospel is sometimes called, is given on the mountaintop. Throughout Scripture, the most important events happen on the mountaintop, and Matthew has used this motif throughout his Gospel. Earlier in Matthew's Gospel, Peter, James, and John had seen Jesus transfigured on the mountaintop (Matthew 17: 1-8). Also in the Gospel of Matthew, Jesus taught the crowds from the mountaintop in what we now call the Sermon on the Mount.

Here we are told that the eleven disciples go the mountaintop in Galilee, as Jesus had instructed through Mary Magdalene and the other Mary (cf. Matthew 28: 9-10). They see Jesus, and both worship and doubt at the same time. Jesus approaches them and commissions them to baptize and teach, "to make disciples of all nations." It is a task which Jesus had previously prepared his disciples for; recall that Jesus had sent the twelve apostles to preach the Kingdom of God and to heal (cf. Matthew 10:1-15). However, earlier the Twelve were sent only to the House of Israel; in this Final Commission, the eleven are told to go to "all nations." The mission of Jesus is now to be taken to all people; the task now is to baptize and to teach.

Jesus commissions his disciples to baptize in the name of the Trinity, one of the clearest attestations found in Scripture for baptism in the name of the Trinity.

HVAC RENOVATION PROJECT ONGOING

The major overhaul of our heating/ventilation/air-conditioning (HVAC) system has begun. This will entail turning the heat off in the church. While May afternoons are expected to be very nice, the early mornings can still get chilly. Bring a sweater or light jacket with you to Mass.

In addition to writing a check or using cash to contribute to Immaculate Conception Church's ministries, you can go to the parish website: www.iccabq.org and click on the Online Giving button.

There you can contribute to the Weekly Collection and Renovation Fund categories as well as such ministries as Bread & Blessings, Francis House, St. Vincent de Paul, Casa de las Comunidades, Annual Catholic Appeal and others. This year you also can give a donation to our June 10th Spring Fiesta to help defray the costs. Check out the Online Giving opportunities!

FIRST COMMUNION

It was a beautiful day, blessed by the Lord's goodness for St. Mary's School third graders to receive their First Holy Communion.

The ear-to-ear smiles the children had on their faces after receiving the sacred body and blood were a tribute to their faith. It was truly the joy of the Lord that they welcomed into their hearts.

Father Steve, in his sermon, reminded their parents that the faith they hand on to their children will be their strength through life. That is certainly true for all of us.

~~Carol Johansen, Teacher & Parishioner

MISSION STATEMENT:

Retrouvaille of NM announced their next program, from May 19 to 21, 2023. Retrouvaille was founded in 1977 by a group of Catholic couples in Quebec, Canada. The program quickly spread to other parts of Canada and the United States, and it is now offered in many countries around the world. Since its founding, Retrouvaille has helped thousands of couples to rebuild their relationships and rediscover the love they once had for each other. If interested, go to www.helpourmarriage.org.

His longest assignment was at Immaculate Conception Parish in Albuquerque, from 2001 to 2021. In 2021, he began his final assignment, as a pastoral minister at Jesuit High School in Tampa, Fla.

Father Vanderholt had a deep love for music and was an excellent pianist. He was exceedingly well-read in literature with a love for theatre, cinema and television drama.

He earned a philosophy degree at Spring Hill College and a Master of Arts degree in English literature at the University of Chicago. He completed his theological studies in St. Mary's College (St. Mary's, Kansas), and at Saint Louis University.

WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED: HEROIC MOTHERS

The Catholic Church is compassionate toward mothers who choose life despite challenging circumstances such as poverty and singleness. Motherhood for such women can mean social isolation. They may not have the loving support of family and friends, or other resources they need to successfully raise a healthy family.

Moms Walking with in Need

Thankfully, our parishes are full of life-loving people who can welcome and befriend moms who are pregnant or who are parenting young children, provide them support and help guide them toward self-sufficiency. During the month of May, in celebration of mothers, in what way can you, your friends, family and parish bless a pregnant or parenting mother in need? Proverbs 31:25: "She is clothed with strength and dignity, and laughs at the days to come."

Our Archdiocese supports WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED in parishes, and encourages parishes to adopt this ministry of referral. All information can be found here, <https://archdiosf.org/walking-with-moms-in-need> including training videos, prayers, ideas for parishes along with a resource list.

In the Acts of the Apostles and in the Letters of Paul, baptism is more frequently offered "in the name of Jesus."

The ending of Matthew's Gospel can be understood as the beginning of the Church. Jesus commissions his disciples to continue to teach in his name and to bring others into the community of disciples through baptism. The Gospel ends, as it had begun, with the promise that Jesus will continue to be Emmanuel, "God with us" (cf. Matthew 1:23), for all eternity.
