IMMIGRANTS IN EL PASO ~

As you may have seen, read or heard, El Paso is dealing with a great influx of immigrants. Many receive services at Sacred Heart, the Jesuit Parish in the Segundo Barrio. (You can watch Fr. Rafael's interview with CNN on our Facebook page from our website.)

"We've been ministering to immigrants since the parish was founded," said Rafael García, SJ, pastor. "This is simply the most recent example of that ministry."

You may also contribute in memory of Fr. Joe Vanderholt, SJ, and Fr. 'Roberto' Sullivan.

If you would like to make a donation to help, go to <https://www.sacredheartelpaso.org/>. Then go to Donate to our Church and in the drop down menu you will find Migrant Fund: Casa del Sagrado Corazón.

Next Sunday's Readings

Pentecost,
Cycle A
Sunday, May 28, 2023

This Sunday's Readings

FIRST READING: Acts of the Apostles 2: 1-11

The Holy Spirit descends upon the apostles gathered in Jerusalem.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 104: 1,24, 29-31, 34
God's Spirit renews the earth.

SECOND READING: 1 Corinthians 12: 3b-7, 12-13
We are all one in Christ Jesus.

GOSPEL READING: John 20: 19-23; Jesus appears to his disciples and gives them the gift of the Holy Spirit.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING: The Season of Easter concludes with today's celebration, the Feast of Pentecost. On Pentecost we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles gathered in the upper room in Jerusalem; this event marks the beginning of the Church. The story of Pentecost is found in the Acts of the Apostles, today's first reading. The account in today's Gospel, John 20: 19-23, also recounts how Jesus gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to his disciples. Yet the event in John's Gospel takes place on Easter Sunday. There is no need to try to reconcile these two accounts. It is enough that we know that after his death, Jesus fulfilled his promise to send to his disciples a helper, an advocate, who would enable them to be his witnesses throughout the world.

We already heard today's Gospel proclaimed on the Second Sunday of Easter this year (Lectionary Cycle A). That Gospel passage, however, also included the description of Jesus' appearance to Thomas. In that context, we were led reflect on belief and unbelief.

In the context of the Feast of Pentecost, John 20: 19-23 reminds us about the integral connection between the gifts of peace and forgiveness and the action of the Holy Spirit. Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace. Jesus then commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." He breathes the Holy Spirit upon the disciples and sends them to continue his work of reconciliation through the forgiveness of sins. Jesus' act of breathing the Holy Spirit mirrors God's act of breathing life into Adam at the time of Creation. In fact, both the Greek and Hebrew words for "spirit" can also be translated as "breath."

GYM FLOOR DEDICATION

St. Mary's School welcomed Pete Domenici, Jr., his daughter, and our alumni to dedicate our new floor in honor of Sr. Marianella Domenici, SC. She was our beloved principal who referred to every one of her students as her "love doves." The floor was unveiled by five teachers who remain teaching at St. Mary's School including Coach Tracey Jennings, Katy Rice, Carol Johansen, Julianne Rivera, and Diane Wisor. We are blessed to continue many of the traditions that were inspired by Sister Marianella.

This Gospel reminds us that the Church is called to be a reconciling presence in the world. The reconciling presence of Christ is celebrated in the Church's sacramental life. In the Sacrament of Baptism, we are cleansed of sin and become a new creation in Christ. In the Sacrament of Penance, the Church celebrates the mercy of God through the forgiving of sins. This reconciling presence is also to be a way of life for Christians. In situations of conflict, we are to be agents of peace and harmony among people.

WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED: HEROIC MOTHERS

The Catholic Church is compassionate toward mothers who choose life despite challenging circumstances such as poverty and singleness. Motherhood for such women can mean social isolation. They may not have the loving support of family and friends, or other resources they need to successfully raise a healthy family.

Walking with Moms in Need

Thankfully, our parishes are full of life-loving people who can welcome and befriend moms who are pregnant or who are parenting young children, provide them support and help guide them toward self-sufficiency. During the month of May, in celebration of mothers, in what way can you, your friends, family and parish bless a pregnant or parenting mother in need? Proverbs 31:25: "She is clothed with strength and dignity, and laughs at the days to come."

Our Archdiocese supports WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED in parishes, and encourages parishes to adopt this ministry of referral. All information can be found here, <https://archdiosf.org/walking-with-moms-in-need> including training videos, prayers, ideas for parishes along with a resource list.
