Next Sunday's Readings

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity,
Sunday, June 4, 2023

This Sunday's Readings

FIRST READING: Exodus 34: 4b-6, 8-9

Moses pleads for God's mercy on Mt. Sinai.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Daniel 3: 52-56

We praise God who is exalted above all forever.

SECOND READING: 2 Corinthians 13: 11-13

Paul urges the Corinthians to live in peace with one another and with God.

GOSPEL READING: John 3: 16-18

God sent his Son into the world to save the world.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING: This week we return to the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. This Sunday and next, however, are designated as solemnities—special days that call our attention to central mysteries of our faith. Today on Trinity Sunday we celebrate the mystery of the Holy Trinity, one God in three persons.

Today's Gospel is from the beginning of John's Gospel. The passage we read follows Jesus' conversation with a Pharisee, Nicodemus, about what it means to be born of both water and the spirit. Nicodemus approaches Jesus at night and acknowledges Jesus as a teacher from God. Jesus tells him that only those who are born from above will see the Kingdom of God. Nicodemus misunderstands and questions how a person can be born more than once. Jesus tells Nicodemus that no one can enter the Kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. Jesus is essentially explaining Baptism, which we celebrate as a sacrament today. Yet Nicodemus, we are told, still does not understand what Jesus is saying. Jesus continues by testifying to the need to be born from above so that one might have eternal life.

After the dialogue with Nicodemus, the author of the Gospel offers his own explanation of Jesus' words. This is what we read in today's Gospel, John 3:16-18.

In the context of today's focus on the mystery of the Holy Trinity, the reading calls our attention to the action of God, who reveals himself in three persons: God the Father, Jesus the Son, and the Holy Spirit. God the Father, out of love for the world, sent his Son into the world in order to save it. Through the death and resurrection of the Son, we have been given the gift of the Holy Spirit. As three persons, God acts always as a God of love; he does not condemn the world but acts to save it. ~ ~ Continued on Page 4, bottom of left column.

GRADUATION

St. Mary's School said good-bye to our graduating class of 2023 at a beautiful and sacred Mass with Father Steve presiding. His message to our graduates was to be strong and have courage because God is always with you. He also thanked them for all the leadership they provided and told them how much they will be missed but that they always had a home at Immaculate Conception. In return, the graduates themselves thanked the SMS teachers and staff, Father Steve, and, of course, their parents for their gift of faith.

Graduates.... Your dreams are big, we can't wait to see how you master the world. God bless our St. Mary's School graduates and all graduates!

~~Carol Johansen, Teacher & Parishioner

The Gospel also calls attention to the response that is required of us. God's love for us calls us to respond in faith by professing our belief in God's son, Jesus, and the salvation that he has won for us. This profession of faith is a sign of the work of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY, JUNE 18

All men are called to the vocation of spiritual fatherhood; some are also called to live this out as fathers of biological, adopted, or foster children.

The societal observance of Father's Day, in addition to the traditional observance of the holiday, is also an opportunity to highlight the spiritual fatherhood of godparents, priests, deacons, uncles, and other men who often serve as fathers in important ways within extended family, parish communities, or individuals' lives.

New! End of Life Resources from USCCB

The recent celebration of the Ascension of the Lord recalls our hopeful anticipation of passing into eternal life and the care that is due to those who are passing from this life into the next.

In 2020, the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith published the letter Samaritanus bonus ("on the care of persons in the critical and terminal phases of life"). Read the Samaritanus bonus letter here.

The Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities has produced several resources, available in both English and Spanish, to accompany this letter:

- ✧ Samaritanus bonus: A Compendium - This compendium contains summaries of each section of Samaritanus bonus and was prepared by the secretariat to serve as a resource on and introduction to the letter. It can be used on its own or in conjunction with the study guide.
- ✧ Samaritanus bonus: Study Guide - This study guide is designed to be used in group settings to discuss and reflect on Samaritanus bonus. It can be used in conjunction with either Samaritanus bonus: A Compendium or with the full document. This study guide provides Scripture passages, prayers, and discussion questions to help participants reflect more deeply on the letter and its central themes and teachings.
- ✧ The Witness of the Good Samaritan: Palliative Care and Hospice - This four-page document offers a brief overview of key points from Samaritanus bonus with specific focus on what it says about palliative care and hospice.
