Next Sunday's Readings

The Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time,
Sunday, June 18, 2023

FIRST READING: Exodus 19:2-6a

God tells Moses that the Israelites will be his special people.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 100:1-3,5

We are the people of God.

SECOND READING: Romans 5: 6-11

Christ died for us while we were still sinners and reconciled us to God.

GOSPEL READING: Matthew 9: 36—10: 8

Jesus sends the twelve apostles to proclaim the kingdom of heaven.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING: In today's Gospel, Jesus shares his mission to proclaim the kingdom of heaven with his disciples. The signs of the kingdom's presence consist of the work that Jesus has already been doing: the sick are cured, lepers are cleansed, demons are driven out, and the dead are raised to life. The disciples are sent to continue doing the work that Jesus has begun. This is a moment of transition in Matthew's Gospel. The focus has shifted from the ministry of Jesus to the work of the community that he has inaugurated. More than any other Gospel, Matthew's Gospel elaborates on the work of the Church, which is to continue after Jesus' death and resurrection.

The Gospel reports that Jesus commissions twelve disciples. Many scholars believe that the twelve disciples symbolize the twelve tribes of Israel. It designates, therefore, continuity between Israel and the Church.

Matthew lists the names of the twelve disciples, as do Mark and Luke. Matthew also uses the word apostle when referring to the Twelve. The word apostle means "one who is sent." In this context, Matthew is calling attention to the mission that the twelve disciples are being given. They are sent by Jesus to proclaim the kingdom of heaven in word and deed.

As Jesus sent his disciples to continue his work and mission, so too the Church is sent by Jesus. The Church is his continuing presence on earth. Every member of the Church is sent by Jesus to contribute to this mission.

DISTINGUISHED DISCIPLE

Every spring the Archdiocese recognizes both an adult and a student Distinguished Disciple from each Catholic school.

Our student nominee was Jeremiah Romero, an 8th grader, who embraces his faith as a follower of Christ. His positive leadership skills are exhibited on the basketball court, football field, classroom, and with his friends and teachers. He was a lector, cantor, altar server and sacristan at our school masses.

Our adult nominee was Morgan Vivian a St. Mary's graduate who just graduated from Valley High School. She was taught the importance of both serving and giving back to the community. During her high school years she gave back to our St. Mary's school family by devoting her time (weekly and throughout the school year) to be our cheer coach. Her enthusiasm and smile were contagious to all she encountered.

Congratulations to our distinguished disciples!

☞ Prayer for Generosity ☞

Lord, teach me to be generous.
Teach me to serve you as you deserve;
to give and not to count the cost,
to fight and not to heed the wounds,
to toil and not to seek for rest,
to labor and not to ask for reward,
except that of knowing that I do your will.

All men are called to the vocation of spiritual fatherhood; some are also called to live this out as fathers of biological, adopted, or foster children.

The societal observance of Father's Day, in addition to the traditional observance of the holiday, is also an opportunity to highlight the spiritual fatherhood of godparents, priests, deacons, uncles, and other men who often serve as fathers in important ways within extended family, parish communities, or individuals' lives.
