Next Sunday's Readings

The Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time,
Sunday, July 2, 2023

This Sunday's Readings

FIRST READING: 2 Kings 4: 8-11, 14-16a

Hospitality extended to Elisha will be rewarded.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 89: 2-3, 16-19

Sing God's praises forever.

SECOND READING: Romans 6: 3-4, 8-11

Through Christ we are dead to sin but alive in God.

GOSPEL READING: Matthew 10: 37-42

Jesus outlines the costs and rewards of discipleship.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING: Today's Gospel is the conclusion of the instructions and consolations that we have heard Jesus offering to his disciples during the past few weeks. In this passage, Jesus summarizes both the costs of discipleship and its rewards. Once again our understanding of the Gospel is strengthened by considering the context in which it was written and the perspective of Matthew's audience.

The conditions of discipleship outlined in Matthew's Gospel may appear harsh. Yet they underline for us a truth—choosing anything with one's whole heart has consequences. Choosing life with Christ means that every relationship we have must be understood from a new perspective. For many in Matthew's community, this choice brought division to their family.

Matthew also outlines the reward of hospitality offered to Jesus' followers. In today's Gospel, Jesus explains the difficulties of discipleship, yet reveals that those who welcome the disciples have also welcomed him.

Today's Gospel also highlights for us the importance of hospitality in the Christian life. To welcome another in Jesus' name is to extend hospitality to Jesus himself. We have many opportunities in our daily life to reach out to others, to be a welcoming presence and a sign of God's love.

✠ Prayer for Generosity ✠

Lord, teach me to be generous.

Teach me to serve you as you deserve;

to give and not to count the cost,

to fight and not to heed the wounds,

to toil and not to seek for rest,

to labor and not to ask for reward,

except that of knowing that I do your will.

OUT OF THE SHADOWS:

SHINING A LIGHT ON HUMAN TRAFFICKING

The annual Social Action Summer Institute will be taking place in-person at Emory University in Atlanta from Wednesday to Saturday July 12-15.

This year's theme is OUT OF THE SHADOWS: SHINING A LIGHT ON HUMAN TRAFFICKING. Programming will emphasize the various facets of human trafficking, including sex, labor and migrant trafficking, as well as how the Catholic Church, people of faith and/or community organizations respond to this pro-life issue. This issue demonstrates how the entire community must come together to put an end to human trafficking. Watch for more information here: <https://www.catholicroundtable.org/events/social-action-summer-institute-sasi>.

Moms Walking with in Need

HEROIC MOTHERS

The Catholic Church is compassionate toward mothers who choose life despite challenging circumstances such as poverty and singleness. Motherhood for such women can mean social isolation. They may not have the loving support of family and friends, or other resources they need to successfully raise a healthy family.

Thankfully, our parishes are full of life-loving people who can welcome and befriend moms who are pregnant or who are parenting young children, provide them support and help guide them toward self-sufficiency. Proverbs 31:25: "She is clothed with strength and dignity, and laughs at the days to come." Our Archdiocese supports WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED in parishes, and encourages parishes to adopt this ministry of referral. All information can be found here, <https://archdiosf.org/walking-with-moms-in-need> including training videos, prayers, ideas for parishes along with a resource list.
