Dear Parishioners of the Immaculate Conception Community,

Greetings! I am honored and humbled to have been asked by Fr. Steve to serve as an assisting priest at Immaculate Conception. That said, it is my fervent hope that I can serve you effectively as both a sacramental minister and spiritual companion at your parish. I sincerely look forward to getting to know all of you better over the coming weeks and months.

As some of you may be curious about me, particularly those who are meeting me for the first time, permit me to furnish a few details about myself. My family is of Bavarian and Polish ancestry, and mostly live in the Upper Midwest. I am originally from Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, and I attended St. Norbert College, Michigan State University (Go Green!) and Catholic Theological Union. I joined the Norbertines of New Mexico in 2009, and was ordained in 2016. Since ordination, I have served as Associate Pastor at Holy Rosary Parish, as Prior at Santa María de la Vid Abbey, as Pastor of St. Augustine Parish at Isleta Pueblo and as Instructor of English, humanities and religion at CNM. Currently, I am the Abbey's Vocations Director and the Director of the Norbertine Library. In my free time I enjoy hiking, watching sports, going to the movies, and reading books and magazines in coffee shops. I like both Old and New Mexican food, but Italian is my favorite. I am a big fan of blues, "outlaw" country and rock music, especially classic rock from the '60s and '70s. And one more crucial detail ... I really love hats!

Finally, I do want to personally thank Frs. Steve and Rob as well as all parishioners, volunteers, and staff of Immaculate Conception for making me feel welcome as I commence my ministerial journey with you. I very much appreciate your kindness, prayers and support.

May God bless you, and I hope to see all of you around the parish soon! Sincerely Yours in Sts. Norbert, Augustine, and Santa María de la Vid, Rev. Stephen A. Gaertner, O.Praem.

Next Sunday's Readings

The Fourteenth Sunday
in Ordinary Time,
Sunday, July 9, 2023

This Sunday's Readings

FIRST READING: Zechariah 9: 9-10

The Lord shall come to reign in Zion.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 145: 1-2, 8-11, 13-14

A prayer of praise to God who is our king.

SECOND READING: Romans 8: 9, 11-13

Those in whom the Spirit of God dwells must now live according to the Spirit, not the flesh.

GOSPEL READING: Matthew 11: 25-30; Jesus prays in thanks to God, who has revealed himself to the lowly.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING: Today's reading from Matthew's Gospel comes after a discourse in which Jesus reproaches people who have witnessed his mighty deeds yet still lack belief. In this context, today's Gospel explains the reason for this unbelief and reveals what is necessary for faith. Today's Gospel also continues to enhance our understanding of discipleship as last week's Gospel did.

Jesus first prays in thanksgiving to God who has made himself known to Jesus' disciples. He praises God who has made himself known to the "little ones" and not to the wise and learned. As in other recent readings from Matthew's Gospel, a contrast is made here between the unbelieving Pharisees, who are wise and learned, and the faithful disciples, tax collectors, and sinners with whom Jesus keeps company.

The second part of this reading calls to our attention the unity between the Father and the Son. God has made himself known through Jesus, and in knowing Jesus, we come to know the Father. In Jesus' life and in his person, God reveals himself to us.

In the concluding sentences of today's Gospel, Jesus' teaching is again contrasted to the teaching of the Pharisees. This common theme of Matthew's Gospel probably reflects tension that existed between Jesus and the Pharisees and between the Pharisees and the community of Christians for whom Matthew wrote. Pharisaic Judaism became the predominant form of Judaism after the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem about 70 A.D. Here that tension is expressed as alternative paths of holiness. The careful observance of the Mosaic law taught by the Pharisees could be experienced by some as difficult and burdensome. In contrast, Jesus' way of holiness is presented as uncomplicated and even restful.

ST. MARY'S SCHOOL NAMED "TOP WORK PLACE"....AGAIN!

The Albuquerque Journal just released their "Top Work Places" and, for the fourth consecutive year, St. Mary's School was named as one of those great places to work.

A "top workplace" is earned when a survey (sent to all employees) exceeds the national benchmarks. The survey has lots of components including workplace values, ethics, and how the employee is treated. Of course, the Journal has told us what we already knew (we are family) but thank you for the recognition and congratulations to all 2023 New Mexico's top workplaces.

Fun Fact: Out of the 64 employers listed, St. Mary's was the only one that was founded in the 19th century (1893). I guess great places to work stick around for a long time!!! Lol

Dear ICC Staff and Parish Families,

As word may have gotten around, mine and my wife June's health has limited my ability to serve as Deacon. With Father Steve's kind and considerate leadership and revered friendship, it has become necessary, that I limit my ministry time and be shown as Retired.

I love and deeply appreciate your prayers, as well as Fathers Steve and Rob, Deacon George, and our awesome ICC Office and Staff team for filling in for me this past month while I've been neither able to walk very well nor allowed to drive.

Although I have made pretty good progress, I'm hopeful that my continued physical therapy will allow me to be more involved serving all of you and supporting Fathers Steve and Rob! Prayerfully, and gratefully to be yours in Christ,

Deacon Don Roseborough

Volunteer Opportunities

Streaming the Mass is fairly easy, and most of the setup is already in place. The work involves redirecting the camera during the Mass so that it focuses on the action taking place. This is a volunteer position.

St. Benedict Joseph Labre Ministry serves the homeless and others in need with care packages that you and other parishioners can hand out from your vehicle when you encounter a person asking for money. We ask your help to:

Commonly needed items are: Protein bars, Granola, breakfast bars, snack bags of nuts, water cartons (for environmental purposes), toothpaste, toothbrushes, Personal Cleansing Cloths, Woman's personal hygiene products, Chap stick, Socks, hand lotion, anything that can be placed in a 1-gallon zip lock bag, so long as it is not bulky; and 1-gallon zip lock bags.

For information, call Phyllis Ortiz at 505-231-5902.

Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers : If you are scheduled to serve via the MSP app and find that you cannot, click the request sub button in the app. This gives other ministers a chance to volunteer to take your place and alerts the sacristan that you're not available. Many of you are doing this - some are not. Thanks for your cooperation and continued service. If unclear on how to do this, contact Fr. Steve, one of the sacristans, or a fellow minister.

GIFT BEARERS are needed for weekend Masses to carry the bread and wine to the Presider during the Preparation of the Gifts. Gift Bearers can be couples, families, or individuals.

Talk to an usher before Mass to see if you are needed. If you have questions, contact Erne Woodley at 505-340-5292.

ALTAR SERVERS

If you take communion to those who cannot join us at Mass, take your pyx to the Sacristy before Mass. The Presider will fill it after Communion and then invite you to the foot of the altar and, with a blessing, return it to you. You should have a burse in which to carry your pyx. Then return to your seat for the Final Blessing.

This year's theme is OUT OF THE SHADOWS: SHINING A including sex, labor and migrant trafficking, as well as how the Catholic Church, people of faith and/or

Moms Walking with in Need

HEROIC MOTHERS

The Catholic Church is compassionate toward mothers who choose life despite challenging circumstances such as poverty and singleness. Motherhood for such women can mean social isolation. They may not have the loving support of family and friends, or other resources they need to successfully raise a healthy family.

Thankfully, our parishes are full of life-loving people who can welcome and befriend moms who are pregnant or who are parenting young children, provide them support and help guide them toward self-sufficiency. Proverbs 31:25: "She is clothed with strength and dignity, and laughs at the days to come."
Our Archdiocese supports WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED in parishes, and encourages parishes to adopt this ministry of referral. All information can be found here, https://archdiosf.org/walking-with-moms-in-need including training videos, prayers, ideas for parishes along with a resource list.
