Next Sunday's Readings

The Nineteenth Sunday
In Ordinary Time,
Sunday, August 13, 2023

This Sunday's Readings

FIRST READING: 1 Kings 19: 9a, 11-13a

The Lord appears to Elijah in a whisper.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 85: 9-14

The Lord is the source of salvation.

SECOND READING: Romans 9:1-5; Paul speaks of the blessings that have come to the Israelites.

GOSPEL READING: Matthew 14: 22-33

Jesus walks on water, and the disciples acknowledge him as the Son of God.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING: For the sake of the crowds that follow Him, Jesus had postponed his time of solitude. Now, at last, Jesus finds some time for quiet and prayer. He sends his disciples ahead of him by boat, dismisses the crowds, and then withdraws to the mountain to pray.

The disciples do not fare well. They struggle to weather the wind and waves, making little progress in their journey. We are reminded of a previous story in Chapter 8 of Matthew's Gospel, when Jesus calms the seas. This time, however, Jesus does not calm the seas, and the disciples do not express fear until they see Jesus walking toward them on the water. In this story it is not the storm that is feared but the sight of Jesus before them, whom they mistake for a ghost.

Clues like these suggest that this story is about the disciples' growing understanding of the identity of Jesus. Today's Gospel is also about what the disciples' faith in Jesus will enable them to do. This Gospel tell us much about ministry.

Jesus calls to the disciples and calms their fears. He is not a ghost. The impulsive Peter seeks proof that the person is indeed Jesus. He asks Jesus to call him out onto the water, and Jesus grants this request. Peter's fear and doubt overtake him, however, once he is walking on the water. Jesus reaches out to Peter and saves him. When Jesus and Peter enter the boat, Matthew reports that the wind ceases, and the disciples confess that Jesus is the Son of God.

Faith in Jesus will enable the disciples to do the work that Jesus has done. Peter walks on water. The disciples can and will participate in the work of the kingdom of heaven. When Peter fears and doubts the person of Jesus, however, he falters. Peter's example teaches us that true Christian ministry emerges from the faith that Jesus is the Messiah, God's only Son.

St. Mary's & Notre Dame

St. Mary's School embraces the calling to serve all learners, including those who struggle with physical, learning, or behavioral challenges. Our own Pope Francis calls schools to "build an educational relationship with each student, who must feel welcomed and loved for what he or she is...." In order to fulfill our vision, St. Mary's participates in Notre Dame's Program for Inclusive Education. Aimee Skidmore (SMS teacher) took classes (both on-line and at Notre Dame) to further our vision of being an inclusive school. As she was packing her bags and leaving Notre Dame she shared, "I learned so much goodness and I can't wait to share it with all of you." And, we can't wait to learn more so that we can continue to further our calling to serve all learners.

Now Enrolling: We are enrolling students in grades Jk-8 (In grades Jk -2 you can choose to learn in English or Spanish). Give us a call at 505-242-6271 to be a part of our school family.

Teacher & Parishioner

Ongoing Activities

SUPPORTING OUR UNHOUSED PARISHIONERS.....

Immaculate Conception Parish has multiple ministries (formal and informal) that support the homeless or unhoused members of our downtown community. In addition to Bread & Blessing, and St. Benedict Labre Ministries, we also have an active St. Vincent de Paul group, and the Parish Office staff daily feeds a number of unhoused individuals. Lately, there appears to be a growing number of people panhandling (coming up to you in the parking lot or to your car asking you for money). While it might seem a charitable thing to do, it can also be a way of enabling inappropriate behavior, and for those who use the money they collect for alcohol or others drugs is actually contributing to their ill health. The best thing to do is to let the person know that you cannot give them money. On Sundays, please just direct them to the Basement Parish Hall where they can receive a satisfying lunch at no charge. Other days of the week, please direct them to the Parish Office. Thank You! ~Fr. Steve

Weekend conversation starter --

FIRST FRIDAY DEVOTIONS ~~

On the 1st Friday of each month, we celebrate the 7am Mass, followed by Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Adoration from 7:30 until 11:45am Benediction. The regularly scheduled 12:10pm Mass follows.

Confessions are as usual from 11am to 12noon.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Our next Welcoming Community PotLuck Meal will be on Sunday, September 3, at 1:30pm. We meet and eat in the fenced-in patio area between the Church and the Rectory on the Copper Street side of our facility. Enter from the Sacristy hallway. All are welcome.

AT HOME WITH THE WORD ~ BIBLE STUDY

Our weekly bible study group, in which we discuss the upcoming Sunday Readings, meets every Wednesday from 2:30 to 3:30pm in the Rectory.

You are welcome to join us at any time.

We are using LTP's At Home with the Word, 2023.

Copies of the book are available in the Parish Office for $15 each.

The BOOK READING GROUP meets Wednesdays, 6 to 7pm. We are reading C.S. Lewis' classic The Screwtape Letters.

This book is available from your favorite bookseller, as well as on Kindle, Audible, and other electronic platforms.

Please contact the Parish Office, 505-247-4271, and ask for Fr. Steve, to make plans for a WEDDING, BAPTISM OR FUNERAL.

BAPTISM CLASS: If you are planning to baptize your child here at Immaculate Conception Church in the near future or are planning to be a godparent, the next Baptism Class will be here at Immaculate Conception Parish on Saturday, August 12, from 10am until 12noon. Parents, please bring your child's birth certificate to the class. Parents and godparent who are NOT registered members of this parish must also bring a letter from their pastor certifying their membership in a parish.

Sometimes later in the day after hearing the Sunday sermon, you'd like to ponder on one of the points. But you can't remember it. Darn!

Wait. You can go to the www.ICCABQ.org site (Parish Life, Sermons) and get a copy of Fr. Steve's homily or contact Fr. Rob (rbustamante@iccabq.org) to get his.

Catholic Charities: Creating Hope for Those in Need for Over 75 Years!

Welcome to week 4 of the Second Collection for Catholic Charities focusing on The Journey Home, and how Catholic Charities is helping to rehouse those experiencing homelessness, preventing homelessness with emergency assistance, providing long-term housing for those disabled, and creating affordable housing for those who may need.

Our programs go beyond 4 walls of a home. We walk alongside those we help, by providing case management to guide them on their journey to self-sufficiency and stability. Thanks to donations from the community, we can set up their home with furniture, home décor, basic living supplies like pots, pans, cleaning tools, and even groceries which make sure their welcome home is truly welcome. We do that thanks to you and the many organizations and churches who help us with their support.

FROM HOMELESS TO HOME: Our programs rely on a self-sufficiency model where participants are assisted to find durable solutions through employment and other supports to transition them to a more stable livelihood. Programs range from one-time emergency rental assistance to long-term permanent housing programs.

Center for Self-Sufficiency and Housing Assistance

PROYECTO LA LUZ: This program is available for families with dependent children experiencing homelessness as a gateway to self-sufficiency. Proyecto La Luz participants receive quality support from Catholic Charities' case managers, who assist them in accessing housing, benefits, counseling, childcare, educational, and employment opportunities.

PARTNERS IN HOUSING: Serves individuals and single parents and their children, who have a disability or who have been chronically homeless in Bernalillo County (12 months or longer).

The focus of participants in this program is to build a stable home for themselves and their children, while they obtain the appropriate services that will lead to their increased well-being. Participants receive assistance from case managers in obtaining housing, disability benefits, counseling, child care, and other resources.

PREVENTING HOMELESSNESS: The Rental Assistance Program (RAP) helps serve individuals and families in Bernalillo and Sandoval counties. We are often overwhelmed by the need and request that you go to www.ccasfnm.org/cssha to complete a questionnaire.

CURRENTLY HOMELESS? If you are experiencing homelessness, the first step is to complete a housing assessment through the NM Coalition to End Homelessness. This is shared among multiple agencies.
