Next Sunday's Readings

The Nineteenth Sunday
In Ordinary Time,
Sunday, August 20, 2023

This Sunday's Readings

FIRST READING: Isaiah 56: 1, 6-7

The Lord reveals his salvation to all.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 67: 2-3, 5-6, 8

All the nations will praise God.

SECOND READING: Romans 11: 13-15, 29-32

God's favor to Israel is irrevocable.

GOSPEL READING: Matthew 15: 21-28; Jesus heals the daughter of a Canaanite woman because of her great faith.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING: Today we move ahead in our reading of Matthew's Gospel. Last week we read about Jesus walking on the water and the disciples' confession of faith that Jesus is the Son of God. If we were reading Matthew's entire Gospel, we would have read about Jesus' debate with the Pharisees about Jewish purity laws. Jesus argues that it is not what goes into us that makes us unclean; he is referring to the strict Jewish dietary rules. Instead our words and our actions—what comes out of us—make us unclean because they emerge from a heart that is unclean.

Knowing about Jesus' debate with the Pharisees helps us to understand today's Gospel. In fact the story heightens the surprise and shock we feel as we hear Jesus' exchange with the Canaanite woman. The woman, who is not Jewish, approaches Jesus, requesting that he heal her demon-possessed daughter. At first Jesus says nothing. The disciples ask Jesus to send her away, and Jesus agrees, remarking that he was sent to minister to the Jews alone.

The woman persists, paying homage to Jesus, and yet Jesus denies her request again. He even insults her, using a Jewish word of derision for Gentiles, "dog." But the woman cleverly turns Jesus' insult into an affirmation of faith. Only then does Jesus grant her request and heal her daughter.

Jesus' unresponsiveness to this woman may strike us as uncharacteristic or shocking. Yet in Matthew's Gospel, Jesus' ministry is directed primarily to the people of Israel. At only a very few points, such as the one found in today's Gospel, do we find Jesus anticipating the later Christian ministry to the rest of the world.

Behind Matthew's text we can hear this early Christian community's struggle to understand how God's selection of Israel is consistent with two events: Israel's rejection

A TIME FOR PRAYER

The week before school starts is filled first with denial (Where did the summer go?) and then excitement, hope, and yes, a bit of nervousness. It is also filled with preparations, meetings, and most important prayer. A big thank you to both Father Stephen and Father Steve who led us in a retreat at the Norbertine Spirituality Center.

Together we prayed for grace, courage, wisdom and gentleness. As we start the new school year, please pray with us that we remain strong in the Lord as we build His kingdom. Amen

Now Enrolling: We are enrolling students in grades Jk-8 (In grades Jk -2 you can choose to learn in English or Spanish).

Give us a call at 505-242-6271 to be a part of our school family.

Teacher & Parishioner

SUPPORTING OUR UNHOUSED PARISHIONERS.....

Immaculate Conception Parish has multiple ministries (formal and informal) that support the homeless or unhoused members of our downtown community. In addition to Bread & Blessing, and St. Benedict Labre Ministries, we also have an active St. Vincent de Paul group, and the Parish Office staff daily feeds a number of unhoused individuals. Lately, there appears to be a growing number of people panhandling (coming up to you in the parking lot or to your car asking you for money). While it might seem a charitable thing to do, it can also be a way of enabling inappropriate behavior, and for those who use the money they collect for alcohol or other drugs is actually contributing to their ill health. The best thing to do is to let the person know that you cannot give them money. On Sundays, please just direct them to the Basement Parish Hall where they can receive a satisfying lunch at no charge. Other days of the week, please direct them to the Parish Office. Thank You! ~Fr. Steve

Weekend conversation starter --

NAMETAGS. Look for the nametag tables as you enter the church for your weekend Mass. As a way of inviting a conversation with a stranger, put your first name on a nametag.

If you are interested in knowing more about Sunday's TED Talk, which follows the 10am Mass, text Pat O'Meara at 505.944.5169.

Our next Welcoming Community PotLuck Meal will be on Sunday, September 3, at 1:30pm. We meet and eat in the fenced-in patio area between the Church and the Rectory on the Copper Street side of our facility. Enter from the Sacristy hallway. All are welcome.

~~ Continued from page 2 ~~ of Jesus and the Gentiles' acceptance of Jesus. Just as Jesus was surprised by the faith expressed by the Canaanite woman, so too the first Christians were surprised that the Gentiles would receive the salvation God offered through Christ. In today's 2nd reading from Paul's letter to the Romans, the apostle Paul considers this same concern.

The faith that the Canaanite woman expresses is an affirmation of and confidence in God's abundant mercy. Yes, salvation comes through Israel, but it overflows for the benefit of all.

AT HOME WITH THE WORD ~ BIBLE STUDY

Our weekly bible study group, in which we discuss the upcoming Sunday Readings, meets every Wednesday from 2:30 to 3:30pm in the Rectory.

You are welcome to join us at any time.

Copies of the book are available in the Parish Office for $15 each.

The BOOK READING GROUP meets Wednesdays, 6 to 7pm. We are reading C.S. Lewis' classic The Screwtape Letters.

This book is available from your favorite bookseller, as well as on Kindle, Audible, and other electronic platforms.

Please contact the Parish Office, 505-247-4271, and ask for Fr. Steve, to make plans for a WEDDING, BAPTISM or FUNERAL.

FIESTA REPORT: Now that we are sure that we have all bills in and paid for, I'd like to give you a report on our parish Fiesta. Thank you to everyone who supported the 3rd

Annual Spring Fiesta, held on Sunday, June 11. The Fiesta Raffle raised $10,662 in income and had expenses totaling $2,585 (which includes the prize money), for a net profit of $8,077!

And the Fiesta (which included food booths, games, silent auction, and cake walk) generated $5,465.99 in income and had $2,024.12 in expenses, for a net profit of $3,441.87.

The proceeds from the Fiesta (a total of $11,518.87) went to help pay for the new heating and air conditioning system in the church and rectory. A special thanks to Kathleen Sandoval, who chaired the Fiesta, to Roberta Montoya, who ran the silent auction, and to the many volunteers who helped make the Fiesta a very enjoyable and profitable event for the parish.
