Next Sunday's Readings

The Nineteenth Sunday
In Ordinary Time,
Sunday, August 20, 2023

This Sunday's Readings

FIRST READING: Isaiah 22: 19-23; God will remove Shebna from his office as master of the palace.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 138: 1-3, 6, 8
God's kindness is forever.

SECOND READING: Romans 11: 33-36
Paul sings praise to God.

GOSPEL READING: Matthew 16: 13-20

Simon Peter acknowledges Jesus as the Christ and is given the key to the Kingdom of Heaven.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING: It is important to read today's Gospel and next week's Gospel as two parts of a single story. These readings are a turning point in Matthew's Gospel. This week we hear Jesus name Simon Peter as the rock upon which he will build his Church. Next week we will hear Jesus call this same Simon Peter "Satan" when he reacts negatively to Jesus' prediction about his passion and death.

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks his disciples what people are saying about his identity. The disciples indicate that most people believe that Jesus is a prophet of Israel. Then Jesus asks his disciples who they believe that he is. Simon Peter answers, identifying Jesus as the Messiah, the Son of God.

Jesus commends Simon Peter for this profession of faith, indicating that this insight has come from God. Because of Simon Peter's response, Jesus calls him the "rock" upon which Jesus will build the Church. This is a word play on the name Peter, which is the Greek word for "rock." Peter is then given special authority by Jesus, a symbolic key to the Kingdom of Heaven. Peter will play an important role in the early Christian community as a spokesperson and a leader.

In today's Gospel, Peter's recognition of Jesus' identity is credited to a revelation by God. This will contrast sharply with Jesus' rebuke of Peter in next week's Gospel. When Peter rejects Jesus' prediction of his passion and death, Peter is said to no longer be thinking as God does but as humans do.

The use of the term church in today's Gospel is one of only three such occurrences in Matthew's Gospel. Peter in this Gospel is being credited as the foundation for the Church, a privilege granted to him because of his recognition of Jesus' identity. The Church continues to be grounded in the faith that Jesus Christ is Lord.

Stewardship

Live & Give in GRATITUDE

SUPPORTING OUR UNHOUSED PARISHIONERS.....

Immaculate Conception Parish has multiple ministries (formal and informal) that support the homeless or unhoused members of our downtown community. In addition to Bread & Blessing, and St. Benedict Labre Ministries, we also have an active St. Vincent de Paul group, and the Parish Office staff daily feeds a number of unhoused individuals. Lately, there appears to be a growing number of people panhandling (coming up to you in the parking lot or to your car asking you for money). While it might seem a charitable thing to do, it can also be a way of enabling inappropriate behavior, and for those who use the money they collect for alcohol or others drugs is actually contributing to their ill health. The best thing to do is to let the person know that you cannot give them money. On Sundays, please just direct them to the Basement Parish Hall where they can receive a satisfying lunch at no charge. Other days of the week, please direct them to the Parish Office.

Thank You! ~Fr. Steve

LA BELLEZA DEL MATRIMONIO

El amor en el matrimonio no hay que darlo por hecho, siempre hay que cuidarlo, alimentarlo y trabajarlo. Dios diseñó el amor de los esposos para que fuera una ayuda mutua, una compañía.

Para no estar solos en el camino de la vida y ser fecundos. El amor de pareja tiene sus etapas. Encomendar nuestro Matrimonio a Dios a través de los Sacramentos y de la oración, es fundamental.
