Next Sunday's Readings

The 22nd Sunday
In Ordinary Time,
Sunday, Sept. 3, 2023

This Sunday's Readings

FIRST READING: Jeremiah 20: 7-9

Jeremiah laments but cannot fail to speak in God's name.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 63: 2-6, 8-9

Our souls yearn for God.

SECOND READING: Romans 12: 1-2

Paul encourages the Romans to stay faithful to God.

GOSPEL READING: Matthew 16: 21-27; Jesus speaks of his Passion and rebukes Peter for his objection.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING: Today's Gospel continues the story that began in last week's Gospel. Simon Peter was called the "rock" upon which Jesus would build his Church, and yet Peter continues to show the limitations of his understanding of Jesus' identity. Now that the disciples have acknowledged that Jesus is the Messiah, Jesus confides in them the outcome of his ministry: he must suffer and die in Jerusalem to be raised on the third day. Peter rejects this prediction, and Jesus rebukes him severely, calling him "Satan." In opposing this aspect of Jesus' mission, Peter shows that he is no longer speaking based on the revelation from God but as a human being. Jesus then teaches all of the disciples about the difficult path of discipleship: to be Christ's disciple is to follow in his way of the cross. Peter could not yet understand what it meant to call Jesus the Messiah. It is unlikely that the other disciples understood any better. Messianic expectations were a common aspect of first-century Judaism. Under Roman occupation, many in Israel hoped and prayed that God would send a Messiah to free the Jews from Roman oppression. The common view was that the Messiah would be a political figure, a king that would free Israel from Roman rule. This is perhaps what Peter envisioned when he was led to recognize Jesus as the Messiah. In this passage, however, Jesus is beginning to teach his disciples that he would be the Messiah in a different way.

Jesus would be more like the suffering servant described by the prophet Isaiah than the political liberator. Those who would be Jesus' disciples would be called to a similar life of service. Perhaps this is what Peter feared most in Jesus' prediction of his Passion. He whom Jesus had called "rock" would also be called upon to offer himself in sacrifice and service to others. Christian leaders today are still called to sacrifice and serve others as Jesus did.

Boo Hoo Breakfast

The Boo Hoo breakfast is an annual tradition at St. Mary's school. It is for the parents of our junior kindergartners and kindergartners. As the title implies, it gives parents an opportunity to gather and shed a tear or two as they drop off their young ones.

Yes, we had plenty of tissues on hand. The tissues were for the parents as the kids seemed to be all smiles.

3RD ANNUAL PRAYER SERVICE FOR SUICIDE AWARENESS

Mark your calendars for Friday, September 15, the Memorial of Our Lady of Sorrows, for our 3rd Annual Prayer Service for Suicide Awareness.

The service will begin at 6pm.

Weather permitting, this will be an outdoor service in the parish courtyard along Copper Street between 6th and 7th Streets. We will gather around the tree dedicated two years ago to those who have been touched in some way by suicide.

The Apostleship of Prayer

Apostles of Prayer offer themselves to God each day for the good of the world, the Church, one another, and the Holy Father's Intentions.

Begin with A Daily Offering:

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in unity with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world.

I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sins, and the reunion of all Christians.

I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and all the Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month. ~ Amen

Then, pray with the Pope for his intention each month:

SEPTEMBER: For people living on the margins. We pray for those persons living on the margins of society, in inhumane life conditions; may they not be overlooked by institutions and never considered of lesser importance.

Live & Give in GRATITUDE

SUPPORTING OUR UNHOUSED PARISHIONERS.....

Immaculate Conception Parish has multiple ministries (formal and informal) that support the homeless or unhoused members of our downtown community. In addition to Bread & Blessing, and St. Benedict Labre Ministries, we also have an active St. Vincent de Paul group, and the Parish Office staff daily feeds a number of unhoused individuals. Lately, there appears to be a growing number of people panhandling (coming up to you in the parking lot or to your car asking you for money). While it might seem a charitable thing to do, it can also be a way of enabling inappropriate behavior, and for those who use the money they collect for alcohol or others drugs is actually contributing to their ill health. The best thing to do is to let the person know that you cannot give them money. On Sundays, please just direct them to the Basement Parish Hall where they can receive a satisfying lunch at no charge. Other days of the week, please direct them to the Parish Office.

Thank You! ~Fr. Steve

WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED: HOPE AND
SUPPORT FOR PREGNANT WOMEN

We need to walk with women who are pregnant in difficult circumstances and help them answer this call to welcome and care for their children. Concerns about a lack of material and financial resources, as well as an absence of physical and emotional support can push women to believe that abortion is their only option. As Catholics, we know that abortion is never the answer for a woman in need. During challenging periods in our lives, we all need the care and support of others. For a pregnant or parenting woman in need, the real, tangible support of others can provide hope and help her see a way forward. Through the combined efforts of parishes throughout our Archdiocese, we can help ensure that any pregnant or parenting woman in need can turn to the Church for compassionate, loving support and assistance. Our Archdiocese supports WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED in parishes, and encourages parishes to adopt this ministry of referral.

All information can be found here, <https://archdiosf.org/walking-with-moms-in-need> including training videos, prayers, ideas for parishes along with a resource list to start.
