Next Sunday's Readings

The 24th Sunday
In Ordinary Time,
Sunday, Sept. 17, 2023

This Sunday's Readings

FIRST READING: Sirach 27: 30—28:9; Those who seek God's mercy must be merciful toward others.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 103: 1-4, 9-12

A song of praise to God who is kind and merciful.

SECOND READING: Romans 14: 7-9; We belong to the Lord.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 18: 21-35; Jesus teaches that we must forgive one another as God has forgiven us.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING: Today's Gospel reading directly follows last week's Gospel in which Jesus taught the disciples how to handle disputes and conflict within the Christian community. In today's reading Peter asks Jesus how many times one ought to extend forgiveness to another. Peter proposes a reasonable number of times, perhaps seven. Jesus replies by extending Peter's proposal by an enormous amount; not just seven times should one forgive, but 77 times. The parable of the unforgiving servant is Jesus' elaboration of his initial reply to Peter. Through the parable we come to understand the depths of God's mercy toward us and the results of our acceptance of God's forgiveness.

The king in the parable decides to settle accounts with his servants. We are told that one servant in particular owes the king an enormous sum of money. Despite the promise of the servant, it is unlikely that he would ever be able to repay the debt that he owes. The king is moved by the humility of the pleading servant and mercifully forgives the debt. Rather than displaying gratitude for this forgiveness, the servant confronts a fellow servant who owes him a small debt—a pittance when compared with the amount that was owed to the king. The unmerciful servant refuses the pleas of his fellow servant and sends the servant to prison.

A few other servants tell the merciful king about the actions of the unforgiving servant. The king punishes the servant because he refused to show the kind of mercy he had himself received from the king. Jesus concludes by indicating that this is how it will be with God and those who refuse to forgive one another.

There is a temptation to quantify forgiveness as Peter tried to do, but Jesus' point is that forgiveness is not about quantity—the number of times we extend forgiveness to another. In the parable the king's forgiveness is like God's forgiveness, and it transforms us, helping us to be as forgiving as God. The lesson is clear: If we hoard God's mercy while showing no mercy to others, we risk forfeiting the effects of God's mercy in our lives.

SEASON OF CREATION

The St. Mary's School 8th grade class sponsored a school assembly where they taught the students the importance of taking care of God's creation and one another.

And the story goes...Once upon a time there were some stars looking at the universe when they noticed how sick the earth was. They saw the polluted air, water, and land. There were no carpools. They called for the doctor to save the earth.

The student body had to come up with their own ideas on how to do this.

And the Oscar goes to.....the entire 8th grade class!!!

A Webinar with Ignatian Friends

Tuesday, September 12 ~ 12-1pm MDT

St. Ignatius Loyola taught his followers that the most important moment of their day was the time set aside to pray the daily Examen. He firmly believed these few moments spent with God affect every other moment of our day and enable us to recognize God in our daily living. To help in our understanding of this 500-year-old practice, we've gathered a panel of experts in Ignatian spirituality for a webinar exploring the riches of the daily Examen. Our panelists are: Fr. Mark E. Thibodeaux, SJ, Jim Manney, Paul Mitchell, and Becky Eldredge.

SUPPORTING OUR UNHOUSED PARISHIONERS.....

Immaculate Conception Parish has multiple ministries (formal and informal) that support the homeless or unhoused members of our downtown community. In addition to Bread & Blessing, and St. Benedict Labre Ministries, we also have an active St. Vincent de Paul group, and the Parish Office staff daily feeds a number of unhoused individuals. Lately, there appears to be a growing number of people panhandling (coming up to you in the parking lot or to your car asking you for money). While it might seem a charitable thing to do, it can also be a way of enabling inappropriate behavior, and for those who use the money they collect for alcohol or others drugs is actually contributing to their ill health. The best thing to do is to let the person know that you cannot give them money. On Sundays, please just direct them to the Basement Parish Hall where they can receive a satisfying lunch at no charge. Other days of the week, please direct them to the Parish Office.

Thank You! ~Fr. Steve

THIS LABOR DAY & ALL THROUGH SEPTEMBER, LEARN ABOUT WORKERS RIGHTS AND CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING. Catholic social teaching reminds us of the dignity of the worker and the inherent value of work. The Catholic bishops of the US have long held that the most effective way to build a just economy is to make decent work at decent wages available for all those capable of working. When the economy fails to generate sufficient jobs, there is a moral obligation to protect the life and dignity of unemployed and underemployed workers and their families. Pope Declares World Day of Prayer for Care of Creation on September 1 to Open SEASON OF CREATION
LET JUSTICE AND PEACE FLOW is the theme and invitation of this year's Season of Creation. The ecumenical phase begins on 1 September with the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation, and concludes on 4 October with the feast of Saint Francis. It is a special time for all Christians to pray and work together to care for our common home. Pope Francis said this day of prayer will be a time for individuals and communities to "reaffirm their personal vocation to be stewards of creation, to thank God for the wonderful handiwork which he has entrusted to our care, and to implore his help for the protection of creation as well as his pardon for the sins committed against the world in which we live." LA BELLEZA DEL MATRIMONIO

El amor en el matrimonio no hay que darlo por hecho, siempre hay que cuidarlo, alimentarlo y trabajarlo. Dios diseñó el amor de los esposos para que fuera una ayuda mutua, una compañía.

Para no estar solos en el camino de la vida y ser fecundos. El amor de pareja tiene sus etapas. Encomendar nuestro Matrimonio a Dios a través de los Sacramentos y de la oración, es fundamental.
