Next Sunday's Readings

The 28th Sunday
In Ordinary Time,
Sunday, October 15, 2023

This Sunday's Readings

FIRST READING: Isaiah 25: 6-10a

The Lord will provide richly for his people.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 23: 1-6

The Lord is our shepherd.

SECOND READING: Philippians 4: 12-14, 19-20; Paul tells the Philippians that God provides whatever he needs.

GOSPEL READING: Matthew 22:1-14; Jesus compares the kingdom of heaven to a wedding feast.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING: Immediately after criticizing the religious leaders through the parable of the tenants in last Sunday's Gospel, Jesus proceeded to tell another parable, again directed at the religious leaders. We hear this parable in today's Gospel.

In the parable of the wedding feast, Jesus offers an image of the kingdom of heaven using the symbol of a wedding banquet. In today's first reading from the prophet Isaiah and in today's psalm, the Lord's goodness is evident in the symbol of a feast of good food and wine. Jesus' listeners would have been familiar with the image of a wedding feast as a symbol for God's salvation. They would consider themselves to be the invited guests. Keeping this in mind helps us to understand the critique Jesus makes with this parable. The context for this parable is the growing tension between Jesus and the Jewish religious leaders in Jerusalem. This has been the case for the past two Sundays and will continue to be true for the next several weeks.

The parable Jesus tells is straightforward. The king dispatches his servants to invite the guests to the wedding feast that he is planning for his son. The listeners would have been surprised to learn that the first guests refused the invitation. Who would refuse the king's invitation? A second dispatch of servants follows. Again to the listeners' great surprise, some guests ignore the invitation. Some of the invited guests even go so far as to mistreat and kill the servants. The king invokes his retribution against these murderers by destroying them and burning their city.

We might stop here for a moment. Why would some guests kill the servants sent to invite them to the king's wedding feast? It might be possible that the king was a tyrant, evidenced by the destruction of the city of those who refused his invitation. But if we follow this idea, then the allegory seems to be about something other than the kingdom of heaven.

October Apostleship of Prayer Intention: For the Synod

We pray for the Church, that she may adopt listening and dialogue as a lifestyle at every level, and allow herself to be guided by the Holy Spirit towards the peripheries of the world.

One of the most important gatherings in the long history of the Catholic Church has begun. The first of two SYNODS ON SYNODALITY convened in Rome on OCTOBER 4, and consider questions that have the potential to change the course of Catholicism.

The synods, gatherings of bishops from around the world, are the final stage of a process initiated by Pope Francis two years ago. It began from the bottom up, with listening sessions in parishes, and continued through national and continental conferences that synthesized the issues and topics which emerged from voices in the pews.

The goal announced by the Vatican at the start of all this: "To enable the Church to better witness to the Gospel, especially with those who live on the spiritual, social, economic, political, geographical, and existential peripheries of our world."

PRAYER FOR THE SYNOD: AD SUMUS SANCTE SPIRITUS

Every session of the Second Vatican Council began with the prayer Adsumus Sancte Spiritus, the first word of the original Latin, meaning, We stand before You, Holy Spirit. As we embrace this Synodal Process, the following prayer invites the Holy Spirit to be at work in us so that we may be a community and a people of grace.

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts;

Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

A chalice will be set out for your use.

SUPPORTING OUR UNHOUSED PARISHIONERS.....

Immaculate Conception Parish has multiple ministries (formal and informal) that support the homeless or unhoused members of our downtown community.

In addition to Bread & Blessing, and St. Benedict Labre Ministries, we also have an active St. Vincent de Paul group, and the Parish Office staff daily feeds a number of unhoused individuals.

Lately, there appears to be a growing number of people panhandling (coming up to you in the parking lot or to your car asking you for money).

While it might seem a charitable thing to do, it can also be a way of enabling inappropriate behavior, and for those who use the money they collect for alcohol or others drugs is actually contributing to their ill health.

The best thing to do is to let the person know that you cannot give them money. On Sundays, please just direct them to the Basement Parish Hall where they can receive a satisfying lunch at no charge. Other days of the week, please direct them to the Parish Office.

Thank You! ~Fr. Steve

GIFT BEARERS are needed for weekend Masses to carry the bread and wine to the Presider during the Preparation of the Gifts. Gift Bearers can be couples, families, or individuals. Talk to an usher before Mass to see if you are needed. If you have questions, contact Erne Woodley at 505-340-5292.

Then return to your seat for the Final Blessing. When you take communion, take a bulletin so that they can follow what we are doing as a parish.

Our Bread & Blessing ministry is preparing to enter its fifteenth year of feeding the homeless and hungry.

RESPECT LIFE

Each October is Respect Life Month, the US Conference of Catholic Bishops launches a new cycle of the Respect Life Program—a year-round, nationwide effort to help Catholics understand, value, and help cultivate respect for human life.

Sponsored by the USCCB and carried out by local leaders, these efforts are renewed each October and continue through the following September.

To assist, the US bishops produce resources to help local leaders build a culture of life. Some material is already available, download all the bi-lingual free resources for use all year at <https://www.respectlife.org/respect-life-month>.

RESPECTING LIFE THROUGH WALKING WITH MOM'S IN NEED

Walking with Moms in Need is parish-based and nationwide initiative through which Catholic parishes and communities "walk in the shoes" of local pregnant and parenting women in need. Everyone should know how to help moms in difficult circumstances. While not trying to turn Catholic parishes into pregnancy centers, we can support local pregnancy centers where they exist, and we can also find and share other resources with pregnant and parenting women. And where there are few local resources, we can create our own, based on the gifts of the parish community! Walking with Mom's in Need provides easy-to-follow, step-by-step instructions to help transform our parishes into places of welcome, support, and assistance for pregnant and parenting mothers facing difficulties.

We hope you and your parish will join us in Walking with Moms in Need. Visit <https://www.walkingwithmoms.com/> to learn more!

OCTOBER 2023

LOCAL RESOURCE LISTS
FOR WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED

The Archdiocese of Santa Fe Office of Social Justice and Respect Life has compiled a list of resources parishes can use to support pregnant Moms in Need. Please note this list is not an endorsement of any agency or group listed.

We apologize for omission of any program not listed, and we will update as we are able. Programs which we confirmed offer Spanish speaking services as of publication date are identified with Se habla Español, however, other programs may also offer services in Spanish.

Services provided by the organizations listed are those of the individual organization and are not services provided directly by the Archdiocese of Santa Fe.

The information is available in two formats, alphabetically and by location.

~~ Continued from page 2. It is more likely that the destruction of the city would have been a powerful image corresponding to the destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans in A.D. 70, which would have been an important event for Matthew's audience. With the invited guests now deemed unworthy to attend the king's wedding feast, the servants are sent to invite whomever they can find. The guests arrive, but it appears that accepting the king's invitation brings certain obligations. The guest who failed to dress in the appropriate wedding attire is cast out of the feast. We are reminded that while many are invited to the kingdom of heaven, not all are able to meet its requirements. God invites us to his feast, giving us his salvation. Yet he asks us to repent for our sins.

Jesus' message in the parable cautions against exclusive beliefs about the kingdom of heaven. The parable also teaches about humility. Those who assume that they are the invited guests may find that they have refused the invitation, and so others are invited in their place. To accept the invitation is also to accept its obligations. God wants our full conversion in complete acceptance of his mercy.

Casa de las Comunidades would like to express our prayerful and special thanks to the students and their parents, the teachers, the school staff, and the Knights of Columbus for their abundant generosity of their prayers and for the donations of food and blessings of hope and joy.

Casa de las Comunidades in Albuquerque is a house of hospitality. The staff who serve among the families of Casa are volunteers. Dorothy Day and Peter Marin established the Catholic Worker Community to serve and accompany families who often find themselves alienated and oppressed by dehumanizing systems and institutions.

ADSUMUS, SANCTE SPIRITUS ORACIÓN POR EL SÍNODO

Cada sesión del Concilio Vaticano II comenzó con la oración Adsumus Sancte Spiritus, las primeras palabras del original latino que significan: "Estamos ante ti, Espíritu Santo." Al ser llamados a abrazar este camino sinodal del Sínodo 2021-2023, esta oración invita al Espíritu Santo a actuar en nosotros para que seamos una comunidad y un pueblo de gracia.

Estamos ante ti, Espíritu Santo, reunidos en tu nombre.

Tú que eres nuestro verdadero consejero: ven a nosotros, apóyanos, entra en nuestros corazones.

Enséñanos el camino, muéstranos cómo alcanzar la meta.

Impide que perdamos el rumbo como personas débiles y pecadoras.

No permitas que la ignorancia nos lleve por falsos caminos.

Concédenos el don del discernimiento, para que no dejemos que nuestras acciones se guíen por prejuicios y falsas consideraciones.

Condúcenos a la unidad en ti, para que no nos desviemos del camino de la verdad y la justicia, sino que en nuestro peregrinaje terrenal nos esforcemos por alcanzar la vida eterna.

Esto te lo pedimos a ti, que obras en todo tiempo y lugar, en comunión con el Padre y el Hijo por los siglos de los siglos. Amén.

Agradecemos el compromiso de las familias que participaron en la catequesis familiar. Les recordamos a los padres de familia que registraron a sus hijos en el catecismo que las sesiones de adultos son en el segundo piso de la escuela. Es importante que los padres igual que sus hijos asistan a las clases y a la misa

No hay edad para poder contribuir con su ayuda en la Iglesia!
Los hermanos Dominguez-Gaytan han enseñado varias formas de poder ayudar en la iglesia. Después de misa ellos le ayudan al Sacristan en recoger los misales y cualquier basurita que ah quedado.

Gabriela Silverio e Iris Brown son monaguillas que asisten al padre. Si su hijo ah hecho la primera comunión el/ella tambien pueden ser monaguillos.

Nuestra Misión Parroquial

*Unidos por el amor de Cristo,
Comunidad Parroquial de la Inmaculada Concepción,
una parroquia fundada por los Jesuitas y enraizada en la Espiritualidad Ignaciana, se compromete a:
vivir los valores del Evangelio;
celebrar la liturgia con alegría;
acoger sin prejuicios;
buscar a Dios en todos;
servir a nuestra comunidad
con especial atención a los pobres y marginados;
y ser un lugar de oración y fortaleza espiritual para todos.*

Estamos invitando a las familias del catecismo que tomen la responsabilidad para traer las ofrendas. A la hora de la colecta las familias que van a llevar las ofrendas se pasaran para la parte de atras.

Que son las ofrendas? Son el vino y las hostias que se consagrarán.

Favor de avisarle a la catequista Maria Elena antes de las 12:30 si le gustaria ayudar con llevar las ofrendas.

Comuníquese con la Oficina Parroquial, 505-247-4271, y pregunte por el padre Steve,
para hacer planes para una boda, bautizo o funeral.

El padre Steve invita adolescentes y jóvenes a participar activamente en las misas del domingo... como servidores del altar/monaguillos. Se requiere que hayan hecho su primera comunión.
