KEEP CHRIST IN CHRISTMAS POSTER CONTEST

The Knights of Columbus are having a Keep Christ in Christmas Poster Contest. Parents can pick up Entry Forms and poster paper at the back of Church beginning this weekend.

This contest is for kids, ages 5 to 14. Prizes will be given in three age groups: 5-7, 8-10, and 11-14.

By engaging the talents of our youth, we hope they will more deeply understand the true meaning of Christmas, and that their artwork will bring others to remember Christ in Christmas.

Read the entry form. Entries need to be turned in by Sunday, December 17, either to the Parish Office or with an usher who will give them to one of the Knights after Mass. If you have questions, call the KofC Grand Knight Bill Ewert at 505-264-9813.

Next Sunday's Readings

The 32th Sunday
In Ordinary Time,
Sunday, Nov. 12, 2023

This Sunday's Readings

FIRST READING: Wisdom 6: 12-16

Wisdom will come to those who seek it.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 63: 2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8

Our souls are thirsting for God.

SECOND READING: 1 Thessalonians 4: 13-18

God will raise all those who have died.

GOSPEL READING: Matthew 25: 1-13

Jesus tells the parable of the wise and foolish virgins, teaching his disciples the importance of being prepared to receive the Kingdom of Heaven.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING: In this week's Gospel, Jesus talks about what it means to be prepared to receive the Kingdom of Heaven. This week's reading follows a series of warnings and predictions by Jesus about the coming of the Son of Man. Jesus wants his disciples to understand that the exact day and time cannot be predicted. He teaches the disciples that they must remain vigilant so that they will not be caught unprepared.

When thinking about the parable of the wise and foolish virgins, it is important to consider the first-century wedding traditions of Palestine. Scholars tell us that it was the custom of the day for young maidens—friends and family members of the bride—to meet the bridegroom when he came to bring his bride to her new home.

As with many of Jesus' parables, several levels of interpretation are possible. In last week's Gospel, we heard Jesus warn against following the example of the Pharisees and scribes. If read in the context of early Christianity's struggle to define itself against Pharisaic Judaism, this parable is a continuing critique of Judaism. It suggests that the Jewish leaders were like the foolish virgins, unprepared to meet Jesus, the bridegroom of Israel. In the chapter preceding this parable, however, Jesus warns about the destruction of Jerusalem, the tribulation of the end times, and the coming of the Son of Man. When read in this context, today's parable is a warning to the Christian community to remain vigilant and prepared to receive Jesus, the Son of Man who will return at the end of time. This interpretation is supported by the reference to the delay of the bridegroom. The Christian community for whom Matthew wrote this Gospel was coming to terms with the realization that the promise of Jesus' return would not be fulfilled within their lifetimes. The question remains for us to ask ourselves, Are we ready to receive Jesus? Will we be prepared to receive him?

NATIONAL HOSPICE AND PALLIATIVE CARE MONTH

“Death is a decisive moment in the human person’s encounter with God the Savior. Helping the Christian to experience this moment with spiritual assistance is a supreme act of charity. It encompasses the patient with the solid support of human relationships to accompany them and open them to hope. Palliative care and hospice are precious and crucial instruments in the care of patients with serious and complex chronic or terminal illnesses, and they help provide comfort to both the patients and their families.”

This is a great opportunity to highlight the topics of hospice, palliative care, and other end-of-life topics. The following resources are available:

❖ CATHOLIC CARE FOR THE SICK AND DYING

This webpage features prayers, articles, and educational resources to help Catholics bear Christ's love to those who are suffering from illness or dying.

❖ THE WITNESS OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN

In 2020, the Vatican’s Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith released the letter Samaritanus bonus, “on the care of persons in the critical and terminal phases of life.” The letter reaffirms the Church’s teaching on care for those who are critically ill or dying and offers additional pastoral guidance for increasingly complex situations at the end of life. This document offers a brief overview of key points from this important document with a specific focus on what it says about palliative care and hospice.

An Adoption Love Story

respectlifeprogram.org/adoption-love-story.

Having children and raising a family had always been our expectation. We soon learned, however, that our chances of becoming pregnant were small.

It wasn’t long before we started talking about the possibility of adoption. I wondered if my heart was big enough to love an adopted child as I would have loved a biological child. But with prayerful discernment, we decided to start the process. On Christmas Eve, Bill* and I left the hospital with Andrew. It didn’t take long before there was no doubt in our minds that he was our son, the greatest gift from God! We can’t imagine loving a child whom we conceived more than we love Andrew.

Tener hijos y criar una familia siempre había sido nuestra expectativa. Pronto nos enteramos, sin embargo, de que nuestras posibilidades de tener hijos propios eran pequeñas. No pasó mucho hasta que comenzamos a hablar de la posibilidad de adoptar. Me pregunté si mi corazón era tan grande como para amar a un niño adoptado del mismo modo que amaría a mi hijo biológico. Pero, gracias al discernimiento que viene de la oración, decidimos comenzar el proceso. En Nochebuena, Bill* y yo salimos del hospital con Andrew. No llevó mucho tiempo antes de despejar toda duda de que era nuestro hijo, ¡el mayor regalo de Dios! No podemos imaginar amar a un niño que hayamos concebido más de lo que amamos a Andrew.
