Next Sunday's Readings

The Solemnity of Our Lord
Jesus Christ the King
Sunday, November 26, 2023

This Sunday's Readings

FIRST READING: Ezekiel 34: 11-12, 15-17

God himself will shepherd the people of Israel.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 23: 1-2, 2-3, 5-6

The Lord is our shepherd.

SECOND READING: Corinthians 15: 20-26, 28

Because Christ has been raised from the dead, all those who have died will also be raised.

GOSPEL READING: Matthew 25: 31-46; Jesus teaches that when the Son of Man comes in glory, he will judge the nations, separating the sheep from the goats.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING: Today's Gospel passage is the conclusion of Jesus' discourse with his disciples. It is about the end of time, the coming of the Son of Man, and the final judgment. We hear this description of the final judgment at the conclusion of our liturgical year, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King. In the context of Matthew's Gospel, this passage might also be read as a conclusion of Matthew's report on Jesus' life and ministry; the remaining chapters report the events of Jesus' Passion and Resurrection.

In today's Gospel, Jesus describes to his disciples the scene of the judgment of the Son of Man. All the nations will be assembled before him, and he will separate them as a shepherd separates sheep and goats upon their return from the pasture. The judgments made by the Son of Man will be based upon the acts of mercy shown to the least ones—the hungry, the thirsty, the naked, the ill, and the imprisoned. Indeed, Jesus, who suffered on the Cross, identifies himself with the least ones.

Recall that last week's parable of the talents taught us that the gifts that we have been given are intended to be used for the service of others, especially the least among us. Our judgment before God will be based not only on how we have used these gifts and talents, but also on how we have extended ourselves in service to these least ones. Indeed, Jesus tells us that whenever we have served these least ones, we have served Christ himself.

When we read today's Gospel in the context of the chapters that follow in Matthew's Gospel, we learn the extent to which Jesus identifies with the least ones. In accepting death on the cross, Jesus shows himself to be one of the hungry, the naked, the ill, and the imprisoned. To accept Jesus is to accept him who suffered and died on the Cross as one of the least ones.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR Bread & Blessing MINISTRY ON 15 YEARS OF SERVICE!

This important ministry, which cares for the physical needs of those less fortunate than ourselves, celebrated its 15th Year of Service this past Wednesday. A special THANK YOU to Roberta Montoya who has so faithfully taken on the leadership of this ministry for most of these 15 years! Bread & Blessing provides lunch every Sunday for close to 200 of our unhoused parishioners and others living "on the edge." In addition, Bread & Blessing provides clothing, toiletries, water, coffee, and RESPECT for those who are disadvantaged. Thank you, Roberta and your team!

Our Communion to the Homebound

Ministry: If you take communion to those who cannot join us at Mass, take your pyx to the Sacristy before Mass. The Presider will fill it after Communion and then invite you to the foot of the altar and, with a blessing, return it to you. You should have a burse in which to carry your pyx. Then return to your seat for the Final Blessing. When you take communion, take a bulletin so that they can follow what we are doing as a parish.

Our Bread & Blessing ministry is preparing to enter its fifteenth year of feeding the homeless and hungry.

We provide sack lunches and bottled water to 100-150 guests every Sunday.

The generosity and support of several parishes who have partnered with us have been instrumental in meeting the needs of our less fortunate brothers and sisters.

When possible, this ministry also provides:

- ✧ seasonal women's and men's clothing including jeans, T-shirts, socks, comfortable walking shoes,
- ✧ hygiene products (not containing alcohol), and
- ✧ back packs.
- ✧ Dog food is also available.

Distribution is on Sunday from 8:30am to 12:30pm in the Parish Basement Hall.

If you are interested in donating or volunteering, or have any questions please contact Coordinator Roberta Montoya at robertacmontoya@gmail.com or call the Parish Office.
