Archbishop John Wester has asked us to pray and keep in our intentions our Holy Father Pope Leo XIV as he recovers from his surgery. Two Masses have been offered for the "Health of Pope Leo XIV." They will be on Friday, October 23 at 12:10pm and on Sunday, October 25 at 8am.

Thank you for your generous support to our parish's St. Vincent de Paul Society. We visited and helped 73 families (131 people in total including 45 children) from Oct 1, 2025 through September 30, 2026. With your thoughtful contributions, we were able to provide $11824.34 rent assistance to prevent evictions, $11634.72 utility assistance, and $3597.94 to help with food, furniture and clothing to our neighbors in need. We were able to provide a carless single mom with a washer and dryer so she didn't have to struggle taking her newborn baby and heavy bags of laundry on a bus to a laundromat. We kept people from electricity disconnection during this summer's soaring temperatures even though we received a record number of calls with large amounts owed to PNM.

We are always praying for more people to join our ministry. We currently have 10 members and would love to have more volunteers join us. If you have any interest, please reach out to us at bsnow44box@gmail.com.

Thank you again for all of your financial support!

Next Sunday's Readings from LOYOLA PRESS.

All Saint's Day, Cycle A,
November 01, 2026
Next Sunday's Readings

First Reading: Revelation 7:2-4,9-14

John describes his vision: those who have endured the trials worship the Lamb.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 24:1-2,3-4,5-6

Those who seek the face of the Lord shall be rewarded.

Second Reading: 1 John 3:1-3

We are God's children now.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 5:1-12

Jesus teaches what it means to be happy.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Every year the Church recalls the example, witness, and prayer of the holy women and men who have been identified by the Church as Saints. These saints are more than just role models; they are family members with whom we continue to share relation, in a bond of prayer, called the Communion of Saints. Every year when we celebrate this day, the Gospel we proclaim recalls for us Jesus' teaching about happiness, the Beatitudes. We quickly note in this reading that none of those Jesus names as "blessed" or "happy" are expected . . . the poor in spirit, the meek, the persecuted. Jesus' blueprint for happiness reflects little of what the world might call happiness.

What does Jesus mean when he uses the word "blessed?" This word is sometimes translated as "happy" or "fortunate" or "favored." In other words, Jesus is saying that divine favor is upon those who are poor, who mourn, who are persecuted. This might have been welcome and surprising news to the crowds who heard Jesus that day.

The Beatitudes can be understood as a framework for Christian living. Because of this, it is natural that we proclaim this Gospel on the Feast of All Saints. Saints are people who lived the spirit of the Beatitudes as Jesus lived. On this day, we too are challenged to model our lives on the spirit and promises of the Beatitudes.
