Change to Baptisms at ICC

The parish leadership has agreed to make a change to the way we celebrate the Sacrament of Baptism at ICC. Currently, baptisms occur on the third Sunday of the month at 2:00PM. Beginning Sunday, December 20, the third Sunday of December, baptisms will be celebrated during Sunday Mass instead of outside of Mass on Sunday afternoon. The Masses at which baptism occurs will typically be the Mass that the parents or godparents of the one to be baptized routinely attends. We believe that this will enable the community to be better-connected to one another, and more welcoming to our newly baptized members.

~Fr. Steve and the ICC Pastoral Staff

Altar of the Deceased

Our Parish invites you to bring pictures of your deceased loved ones to place on the altar of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. We will pray for them throughout the month of November. Please bring the pictures in frames with your names and phone numbers so we can ensure that all the pictures are returned to their proper place.

Next Sunday's Readings from LOYOLAPRESS.

Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, Cycle A, November 15, 2026 Next Sunday's Readings

First Reading; Proverbs 31:10-13,19-20,30-31
The virtues of a good wife are extolled.

Responsorial Psalm; Psalm 128:1-2,3,4-5
Blessed are those who walk in God's ways.

Second Reading; 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6
Paul warns the Thessalonians to stay alert because the day of the Lord cannot be predicted.

Gospel Reading; Matthew 25:14-30
Jesus tells the parable of the talents, in which he teaches about the importance of using the gifts that God has given to us in service to the Kingdom of Heaven.

Background on the Gospel Reading
This week's Gospel speaks of how Jesus' disciples are to conduct themselves as they await the Kingdom of Heaven. In the preceding passages and in last week's Gospel, Jesus taught that there is no way to predict the coming of the Kingdom of Heaven. His disciples must, therefore, remain vigilant and ready to receive the Son of Man at any time.

Jesus' parable talks about Christian discipleship using economic metaphors. Before he leaves on a journey, the master entrusts to his servants a different number of talents, giving to each according to their abilities. A talent is a coin of great value. Upon the master's return, he finds that the first and second servants have doubled their money, and both are rewarded. The third servant, however, has only preserved what was given to him because he was afraid to lose the money. He has risked nothing; he did not even deposit the money in a bank to earn interest. This servant is punished by the master, and his talent is given to the one who brought the greatest return.

Read in light of last week's parable of the wise and foolish bridesmaids, this parable teaches that God's judgment will be based on the service we render to God and to one another in accordance with the gifts that God has given to us. Our gifts, or talents, are given to us for the service of others. If we fail to use these gifts, God's judgment on us will be severe. On the other hand, if we make use of these gifts in service to the Kingdom of Heaven, we will be rewarded and entrusted with even more responsibilities.

This Gospel reminds us that Christian spirituality is not passive or inactive. Our life of prayer helps us to discern the gifts that have been given to us by God. This prayer and discernment ought to lead us to use our gifts in the service of God and our neighbor. God's grace allows us to share in the work of serving the Kingdom of Heaven.

Pope Leo: Voice of Peace in a Season of War

Pope Leo XIV has established a Papacy marked by active engagement in our liturgical traditions, global peace advocacy, and pastoral care of immigrants, youth, and nations. His message consistently emphasizes hope, reconciliation, dialogue, and nonviolent solutions to conflict. His spiritual leadership is intertwined with social responsibility and global outreach. As part of this session, we will discuss his first encyclical "Magnifica Humanitas: On Safeguarding the Human Person in the Time of Artificial Intelligence."
