The Jubilee Prayer 2025

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel. May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth. To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever.

Amen

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today, the second Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate a second solemnity, which marks our return to Ordinary Time. Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. At one time, this day was called Corpus Christi, Latin for "the Body of Christ." In the most recent revision of the liturgy, the name for this day is expanded to be a more complete reflection of our Eucharistic theology.

The feeding of the 5,000 is the only one of Jesus' miracles to appear in all four Gospels. Luke places it between Herod's question, "Who is this about whom I hear such things?" and Peter's response to Jesus' question about who he thought Jesus was: "You are the Messiah of God." In Luke the feeding is not the result of Jesus' compassion for the crowd but is instigated by the disciples. They wanted Jesus to send the crowd away to town. Instead Jesus tells the disciples to give them some food on their own.

The passage is meant to remind us of two feedings in the Old Testament: the feeding of the Israelites in the desert and Elisha's feeding of 100 people with 20 loaves in 2 Kings 4:42-44. It is also connected to the institution of the Eucharist. As in the Last Supper accounts in Matthew, Mark, and Luke and in Paul's account in 1 Corinthians 11:23-24, Jesus takes bread, looks up to heaven, blesses the bread, breaks it, and then gives it to the disciples. In using this exact language, Luke is reminding his readers that in this miracle Jesus is doing more than feeding hungry people as God did for the Israelites and the prophet Elisha did as well. The bread he gives is his body, which he will continue to give as often as the community breaks bread in remembrance of him in the Eucharist.

Be a (Pipe) Organ Donor!

The pipe organ console in the choir loft here at Immaculate Conception Parish is no longer functional, and is beyond repair. Age has taken its toll on this roughly 100 year old instrument. We have been fortunate to find a beautiful modern pipe organ console and have purchased it (it's sitting in the back of the church awaiting installation.) In order to remove the old organ and install the new one, we are looking for donors to contribute to the installation and tuning costs of the new console, estimated to run approximately $40,000. Please watch the bulletin in the weeks ahead for further information on this project.

Sea un donante de órgano (de tubos)!

La consola del órgano de tubos de coro aquí en la Parroquia de la Inmaculada Concepción ya no funciona y no tiene reparación. El tiempo ha hecho mella en este instrumento de aproximadamente 100 años. Hemos tenido la suerte de encontrar una hermosa consola de órgano de tubos moderna y la hemos comprado (está en la parte trasera de la iglesia esperando su instalación). Para quitar el órgano viejo e instalar el nuevo, estamos buscando donantes que contribuyan a los costos de instalación y afinación de la nueva consola, que se estima que costarán aproximadamente $40,000. Esté atento al boletín en las próximas semanas para obtener más información sobre este proyecto.

Flamenco 38.

La Inmaculada Concepción se complace en dar la bienvenida al evento de Flamenco 38 titulado Liturgia, el lunes 23 de junio. Liturgia es un espectáculo de flamenco inspirado en la rica herencia de los rituales religiosos y culturales de Andalucía, moldeado por siglos de diversas influencias del Mediterráneo y otros lugares. Explora la evolución de la liturgia cristiana andaluza en el siglo XVIII, su época dorada de la música y la conexión entre las tradiciones sagradas y populares, como las saetas y las tonás, que posteriormente dieron forma al icónico cante jondo del flamenco. Las entradas para Liturgia están disponibles en línea en <https://ffabq.org/shows/josemaya/>
