Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Grateful Response

The beatitudes describe the grateful response of those who have received the gospel and have been made children of God. Today's other readings also emphasize God's initiative in saving the lowly, those who have nothing of their own to boast about.

This is the "remnant" theme: from the mass of humanity headed for destruction, God has rescued and sanctified a small group. Recognizing that we are saved by God's grace alone, we are called to live in gratitude and fidelity.

But God is not content with a remnant. From Jesus the call has come to us and with it the power of his Eucharist. From us the message must go forth to others, so that all may be included in the glory of the saved.

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

Matthew 5:3

The phrase "poor in spirit" can be confusing. Think of it in this sense—poor in spirit means depending on God's providence and not depending on our own self-reliance.

Being detached from earth things (power, money, and comfort) and being attached to heavenly things (charity, sacrifice and mercy). Denying ourselves from satisfying our desires and helping others obtain their basic needs.
