Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Listening

Selective listening has become a highly developed skill among human beings. Ours is a noisy world! It is seldom that we are not bombarded with the sound of traffic, machinery, music, etc. We tune out for survival; we also tune out to escape responsibility.

Jesus repeats several times in today's gospel: "You have heard the commandment." He then goes on to explain how the new covenant is not about mere external observance of law, but interior conversion of heart.

The Letter to the Corinthians reminds us that "ear has not heard ... what God has prepared for those who love Him."

If we are to inherit what God has prepared, we need to listen up!

J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Never do anything you wouldn't be willing to explain to God.

To sign up for the online giving platform (Push Pay), you may do so by scanning the QR Code at the left or by going to our parish website: holycrossauburn.com and clicking on the "Giving" button.

THANK YOU for your generosity in supporting our parish.

†
LOVE GOD
LOVE OTHERS

"For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven." Matthew 5:20

The Pharisees lived according to the letter of the law, and they used this to elevate themselves above the other people. Jesus is clear—it's the love that you have in your heart, for God and others, that will get you to heaven.

Simply following church rules to the letter and not out of love, does not necessarily put you on the path to heaven. Attending Sunday Mass and then gossiping about a fellow parishioner on the parking lot is an example of being a modern-day Pharisee.
