

Art activity for primary students

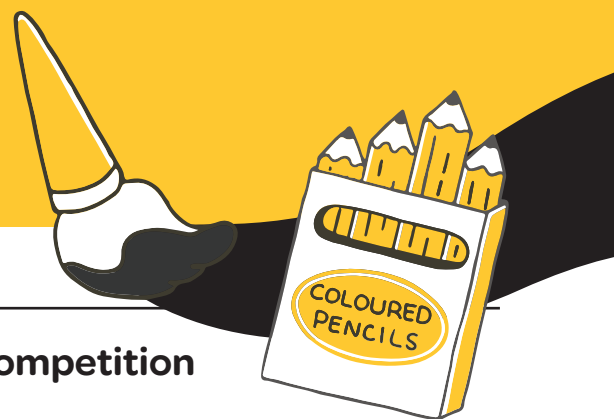

R U OK? Art Activity

Duration	One-hour lesson; ideally completed over 2 lessons.
Learning intention	Students consider the question 'what does being a good friend look like to you?'
Activity focus	Students express their thoughts about what it means to be a good friend through the creation of a piece of art.
Resources required	○ Pen and paper for brainstorm ○ Materials to create student artwork (crayons, paint, colouring pencils etc).
Curriculum and wellbeing themes	○ Help-giving ○ Personal and social skills ○ Relationships.
Success criteria	○ Identifying what being a good friend looks like to them ○ Reflecting on how they are a good friend to others.
Activity description	Part 1 – Introduce the R U OK? Art Activity Explain to students that they will be creating an artwork that addresses the question 'what does being a good friend look like to you?' Part 2 – Silent brainstorm Ask students to think about what artwork they will create to address the question. Encourage them to consider different ways they show their friends that they care about them. Part 3 – Creation of individual student artwork Students work to create an artwork that responds to the question. After all artworks are complete, encourage students to share what they have created with the class.
Supporting resources	 Find the ways to ask your friends R U OK?  How to be a good friend and ask R U OK?

Art activity for primary students

R U OK? Art Activity

Judging criteria for optional in-school artwork competition

The suggested judging criteria for artworks include:

Criteria	Description	Score
Concept	How well does the artwork relate to the question 'what does being a good friend look like to you?'	/5
Quality of composition	Skill displayed and how well the artistic elements work together to answer the chosen question.	/5
Creativity and originality of expression	How imaginatively the artwork conveys an idea or emotion, or incorporates a specific story.	/5
Total		/15

RUOK?

Student
Art Competition

Creative Legend

Congratulations

Thank you for your creativity and for sharing your thoughtful ideas about friendship.

.....
Date