A Recipe of a Good Friend

Year level 2

Duration	30 minutes
Learning intention	We are learning to identify the qualities of a good friend.
Activity focus	Create the perfect recipe for a good friend. Students consider the qualities of a good friend, and identify the qualities they value the most.
Resources required	<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Recipe Template Poster
Curriculum and wellbeing themes	<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Relationships○ Social management
Success criteria	I can: <ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Identify the qualities of a good friend
Activity description	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. If we could follow a recipe to create a good friend, what would the recipe look like? We are going to create a recipe for a good friend!2. Pose question: what does it mean to use a recipe or what does a recipe look like? Show students examples of cake recipes or ask students to talk about a time they followed a recipe.3. Instead of making a cake or some kind of food, today we are going to make a recipe to create a good friend. Pose question: what kinds of things do you think make a good friend? Brainstorm answers on the board: for example, kindness, patience, empathy, humour and respect.4. In the ingredients section, add these qualities to the list e.g. 3 cups of kindness, half a cup of patience, a spoonful of empathy, a pinch of humour and 300g of respect.5. Complete the instructions section for your recipe (get creative and have some fun – allow students to be creative), for example: blend together and bake for 20 minutes.6. Provide students with the 'Good Friend' template to create their own recipe.
Differentiation	<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Supporting the Learner: Students work in pairs to label their 'Good Friend'.○ Extending the Learner: Allow students to create their very own recipe of a good friend.
Reflection question	What ingredients do you think are inside of you that make you a good friend?
