Course	Who should attend?	Why should you attend?	Dates
inspired Blended Learning: Reliability & Maintenance Engineers RMIC® eligible	Reliability Engineers, Maintenance Engineers, Reliability Technicians, Reliability Managers, Operations Managers	This blended learning curriculum teaches the core skills of Maintenance and Reliability Engineering. Students will apply statistics, RCM, RCA, and other tools to a project area with the help of a personal coach.	• September 23-26 • November 18-21
inspired Blended Learning: Maintenance Managers RMIC® eligible	Maintenance Managers, Maintenance Supervisors, Operations Managers	This blended learning curriculum helps managers understand the roles of a reliability team and how to coach them to new levels of performance.	• September 23-26 • November 18-21
inspired Blended Learning: Planning and Scheduling RMIC® eligible	Planners/Schedulers, Maintenance Supervisors	This blended learning curriculum will take the student through both the education and application of all the core planning and scheduling elements with the help of a coach.	• September 23-26 • November 18-21
inspired Blended Learning: Operations Management RMIC® eligible	Operation Managers, Maintenance Managers, Reliability Managers	This blended learning curriculum provides a better understanding of Root Cause Problem Solving, Operator-Driven Reliability (including 5S, Center Lining, SMED, Visual Factory, and Standard Work), and more. Drive down costs while increasing operational uptime.	• September 23-26 • November 18-21
inspired Blended Learning: Storeroom Management & Spares Inventory RMIC® eligible	Storeroom Managers, Storeroom Leads, MRO Specialists, Storeroom Attendees	This blended learning curriculum provides the student with best practices understanding of storeroom and inventory management	• November 4-6
Leadership for Facilities & Maintenance	Plant Managers, Maintenance Managers, Reliability Engineers, Reliability Managers, Storeroom Managers, Operation Managers, Supervisors	This comprehensive training program will empower your team to excel in personal productivity, continuous learning, effective meeting management, leadership, and project management.	• September 16-18
SMRP Body of Knowledge Review CMRP Course	Maintenance and Reliability Engineers and Managers looking to attain their CMRP certification.	This blended learning curriculum is designed to give the stu dent a thorough understanding of all the elements of the SMRP CRMP Body of Knowledge.	• August 12-14 • December 9-11
SMRP Body of Knowledge Review CMRT Course	Maintenance and Reliability Technicians looking to enhance their career and attain their CMRT certification.	This curriculum is designed to give the student a thorough understanding of all the elements of the SMRP CRMT Body of Knowledge.	• December 16-18
Reliability Fundamentals- Overview	Anyone wanting to gain awareness of reliability practices and desire to gain additional knowledge and ability.	This course focuses on understanding the maintenance vision and assisting in its implementation and continuous improvement.	• Inquire for Dates
Root Cause Analysis	Anyone responsible for problem-solving and process improvement.	This course focuses on problem-solving. Attendees will both learn the RCA tools and apply them to a problem in their facility.	• Inquire for Dates