

ST. JULIE BILLIART PARISH

You are loved by God and are welcomed to celebrate with us here in our community.

The Most Holy Trinity—Solemnity

Today's solemnity entered the General Roman Calendar in the fourteenth century as a designated Sunday on which we ponder the inner life of the Most Holy Trinity, renewing and deepening our honor and worship.

The Trinity is The Divine Mystery above all mysteries. Not even in Heaven will we have a complete understanding of God's essence. Only God knows Himself fully. Nonetheless, every angel and human is called to probe the mysteries of God to the fullest extent possible. In that probing, contemplating, and understanding, we discover the purpose of our lives and experience the fullness of beatitude to which we are called. God alone satisfies the hungry, weary, and seeking soul.

God is incapable of change because He is perfection. He is exactly Who He is, always has been, and always will be. God alone is all-powerful and has supreme authority over all creation. He alone perceives all potentiality within creation and within Himself. He is perfectly wise, just, and merciful. He is both completely beyond creation (transcendent) and intimately involved with every aspect of creation (immanent). God is the perfection of holiness and morality. He is the only standard of goodness and truth. He is present everywhere at all times—unchanging and eternal.

God is One God, not three. The Father, Son, and Holy Spirit each share perfectly in the one divine nature, and all share the same divine attributes. The Scriptures reveal God to us as one-in-three. The Old Testament alluded to the threefold personhood of God, and Jesus identified the three persons as the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Human reason alone could never arrive at that realization.

God's attributes and existence can be summed up as "God is love" (1 John 4:8). Love must have a giver, a receiver, and the love that unites them. God's very nature is to love perfectly, to receive love perfectly, and to be love itself.

In the Trinity, the Father loves the Son, the Son loves the Father, and the Holy Spirit personifies their mutual love. The Church defines God's love as an "eternal begetting" and an "eternal procession." "Begetting" and "proceeding" point to love's relational origin. The Father eternally begets the Son in an eternal exchange of love. The Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father and the Son, emanating from their mutual love. The Nicene Creed articulates these profound mysteries:

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made... I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

Slowly, these basic definitions of the Most Holy Trinity took shape, beginning with fourth- and fifth-century Church councils and deepening with writings from theologians, such as Saint Augustine and Saint Thomas Aquinas. We can grow in understanding of God only through the deepest forms of contemplative prayer, an infused prayer that only God can bestow as He invites you to enter into His divine presence. Few, however, reach that height of prayer in this life.

Most Holy Trinity—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—You are the One God in Three Persons. I give to You my life, all that I am, and all that I will be. Do with me what You will so that You will be glorified in my life. Most Holy Trinity, have mercy on me. Jesus, I trust in You.

INVESTING IN SPIRITUAL RENEWAL AT ST. JULIE BILLIART

Through the Sowing Seeds of Faith campaign, St. Julie Billiart will play a significant role in this historic moment of the Church in Santa Clara County and ignite fresh growth with key investments right here at St. Julie Billiart. With St. Julie Billiart's share of the funds raised in this campaign, we will begin the important work of implementing our diocesan Pastoral Plan and investing locally in these priority projects to sow seeds of faith for generations to come.

Key Investments at St. Julie Billiart

WORSHIP – Implementation of Sacred Worship through Inspiration, Formation, and Conferences

The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life. In line with the diocesan plan for Understanding the Mass, we will offer formation for our ministers and parishioners on the beauty and sacredness of the liturgy.

Spiritual Fruit: Through these enhanced ministerial formation, our community will gather with an increased posture of reverence towards, "full, active, and conscious participation". We will grow the number of liturgical ministers as well as deepen their commitment to celebration of the heavenly banquet on earth.

YOUTH & YOUNG ADULTS – Retreats, Conferences, and Leadership Training

The presence and investment of youth (grades 6-12) and young adults (ages 18-35) is vital to every church's growth. We will establish and enhance our ministries that engage youth and young adults with authenticity, creativity and accompaniment.

Spiritual Fruit: We will see a promotion of leadership opportunities and role of the youth and young adults in church activities and church events. The faith experiences will help young people encounter Christ, find their place in the Church and deepen their vocational discernment to our community.

FAMILY MINISTRY – Hire Adult Formation Director Focused on Family

The family is the domestic church. St John Paul II said that "as the family goes, so goes the community and the nation and so goes the whole world in which we live." It has a foundational and critical role where faith and values are first learned and practiced. As such we will hire a Family Coordinator to that will create opportunities for families to gather and support parents as the primary catechists.

Spiritual fruit: Strong families, centered in Christ - the family as a school of love and life; the parish events will be more family-centric and the homes of our families will be filled with Christ's presence.

All that we are — and all that we have — we owe to the loving grace of the One whom we come to know as our Lord Jesus Christ who loved us first—and loves us always.
