I. CASE BACKGROUND

On July 3, 2023, Plaintiff Hale provided written notice to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to be violated by Defendants ("Hale LWDA Letter"). On July 5, 2023, Plaintiff Hale commenced a putative class action lawsuit by filing a Class Action Complaint in the Action. On December 12, 2023, Plaintiff Gilbert provided written notice to the LWDA of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to be violated by Defendants ("Gilbert LWDA Letter"). Together, the Hale LWDA Letter and the Gilbert LWDA Letter are referred to as the "LWDA Letters." On September 18, 2024, Plaintiffs filed a First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint ("Operative Complaint") in the Action. The Operative Complaint alleges ten (10) causes of action for violations of the California Labor Code for failure to pay overtime wages, failure to pay minimum wages, failure to provide compliant meal periods and premium payments in lieu thereof, failure to provide compliant rest periods and premiums payments in lieu thereof, failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to timely pay wages upon termination, failure to reimburse necessary business expenses, and failure to produce requested employment records, for violations of California Business & Professions Code Section 17200, et seq. based on the aforementioned California Labor Code violations, and for civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2698 et seq. ("PAGA") based on the aforementioned California Labor Code violations.

The Action has been actively litigated. There have been investigations and an exchange of extensive documentation and data. Furthermore, the Parties participated in arms-length settlement negotiations and private mediation. Based upon the negotiations and mediation, and all known facts and circumstances, including the various risks and uncertainties related to legal actions including the complete defenses to liability potentially available to Defendants, the inherent risk of trial on the merits, the risk of denial of class certification, and the delays associated with litigation, the Parties reached a settlement. By settling, the Parties will avoid the risks associated with a lengthy litigation process. Despite agreeing to and supporting the settlement, Defendants continue to deny all allegations and claims, and entering into the settlement is not an admission of wrongdoing or liability. The Parties have since entered into a Joint Stipulation of Class Action and PAGA Settlement and Release ("Settlement Agreement" or "Settlement"), which has been preliminarily approved by the Court.

II. SUMMARY OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

A. The Amount of the Settlement

Under the terms of the Settlement, Defendants agree to pay a gross settlement amount of $6,675,000.00 ("Maximum Settlement Amount"). Deducted from this Maximum Settlement Amount will be sums approved by the Court for attorneys' fees, not to exceed thirty-five percent (35%) of the Maximum Settlement Amount ($2,336,250.00), and attorneys' litigation costs and expenses not to exceed $22,000.00 (together, "Attorneys' Fees and Costs"), enhancement awards to each of the three Class Representatives not to exceed $10,000.00 each (total, $30,000.00) ("Enhancement Awards"), the fees and expenses of the settlement administrator estimated not to exceed $20,000.00 ("Settlement Administration Costs"), and $400,000.00 for alleged PAGA penalties ("PAGA Amount"), which will result in a "Net Settlement Amount" for distribution to all Class Members.

B. Settlement Formula and Settlement Awards

Class Members are eligible to receive payment under the Class Settlement of their pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount ("Individual Settlement Share") based on their number of weeks they each worked for Defendants as hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees in California during the Class Period ("Workweeks"). The Settlement Administrator has divided the Net Settlement Amount by the Workweeks of all Class Members to yield the "Estimated Workweek Value," and multiplied each Class Member's individual Workweeks by the Estimated Workweek Value to yield an estimated Individual Settlement Share that each Class Member may be entitled to receive under the Class Settlement (which is listed in Section II.D below). Class Members who do not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion ("Settlement Class Members") will be issued their final Individual Settlement Payment.

Each Individual Settlement Share will be allocated as follows: one third (1/3) to alleged unpaid wages for which IRS Forms W-2 will be issued; and two-thirds (2/3) to alleged unpaid penalties, interest, and non-wage damages for which IRS Forms 1099-MISC will be issued (if applicable). Each Individual Settlement Share will be subject to reduction for the employee's share of payroll taxes and withholdings with respect to the wages portion of the Individual Settlement Shares resulting in a net payment to the Settlement Class Member ("Individual Settlement Payment"). The employers' share of taxes and contributions in connection with the wages portion of Individual Settlement Shares will be paid by Defendants separately and in addition to the Maximum Settlement Amount.

Each Individual PAGA Payment will be allocated as one hundred percent (100%) penalties, will not be subject to taxes or withholdings, and will be reported on IRS Form 1099 (if applicable).

If the Court grants final approval of the Settlement, Individual Settlement Payments will be mailed to Settlement Class Members and Individual PAGA Payments will be mailed to PAGA Members at the address that is on file with the Settlement Administrator. If the address to which this Class Notice was mailed is not correct, or if you move after you receive this Class Notice, you must provide your correct mailing address to the Settlement Administrator as soon as possible to ensure you receive any payment that you may be entitled to under the Settlement.

C.	Your Workweeks and PAGA Workweeks (if applicable) Based on Defendants' R	Records

According to Defendants' records:

- From April 30, 2019 through September 29, 2024 (i.e., the Class Period), you are credited as having worked [Workweeks.
- From July 3, 2023 through September 29, 2024 (i.e., the PAGA Period), you are credited as having worked [_____] PAGA Workweeks.

If you wish to dispute the Workweeks and/or PAGA Workweeks credited to you, you must submit your dispute in writing to the Settlement Administrator ("Workweeks Dispute"). The Workweeks Dispute must: (a) contain the case name and number of the Action (Djuana Shanella Hale, et al. v. Welbe Health, LLC, et al., Case No. STK-CV-UOE-2023-0006866); (b) contain your full name, signature, address, telephone number, and the last four (4) digits of your Social Security number; (c) clearly state that you dispute the number of Workweeks and/or PAGA Workweeks credited to you and what you contend is the correct number; and (d) be returned by mail to the Settlement Administrator at the specified address listed in Section III.A below, postmarked on or before [Response Deadline].

The Settlement Administrator will calculate the number of Workweeks worked by all Class Members during the Class Period and the number of PAGA Workweeks worked by all PAGA Members during the PAGA Period based on the timekeeping records and other relevant information provided by Defendants. In order to be counted as a Workweek or PAGA Workweek, the Class Member or PAGA Member must have worked at least one day in that week. The Settlement Administrator's calculation of the number of Workweeks and PAGA Workweeks will be presumed to be correct unless a particular Class Member or PAGA Member proves otherwise to the Settlement Administrator by credible written evidence. The Settlement Administrator shall refer to the timekeeping records and other relevant information provided by Defendants for resolution of any Workweeks Dispute. All Workweeks Disputes will be resolved and decided by the Settlement Administrator, and the Settlement Administrator's decision on all Workweeks Disputes will be final and non-appealable.

D. Your Estimated Individual Settlement Share and Individual PAGA Payment (if applicable)

As explained above, your estimated Individual Settlement Share and Individual PAGA Payment (if applicable) is based on the number of Workweeks and PAGA Workweeks (if applicable) credited to you.

Under the terms of the Settlement, your Individual Settlement Share is estimated to be $______. The Individual Settlement Share is subject to reduction for the employee's share of taxes and withholdings with respect to the wages portion of the Individual Settlement Share and will only be distributed if the Court approves the Settlement and after the Settlement goes into effect.

Under the terms of the Settlement, your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to be $______ and will only be distributed if the Court approves the Settlement and after the Settlement goes into effect.

The settlement approval process may take multiple months. Your Individual Settlement Share and Individual PAGA Payment (if applicable) reflected in this Class Notice is only an estimate. Your actual Individual Settlement Payment and Individual PAGA Payment (if applicable) may be higher or lower.

E. Release of Claims

The "Released Class Claims" means all claims under state, federal, and local law that were or could have been reasonably asserted based on the facts and allegations made in the Operative Complaint, arising during the Class Period, including, claims arising under California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1174(d), 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 2800, and 2802, California Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, California Code of Regulations, Civil Code section 1021.5, and all claims for or related to Defendants' alleged failure to pay minimum, overtime, or double time wages, properly calculate the regular rate of pay, timely pay wages at separation, reimburse necessary business expenses, provide accurate wage statements, pay for all hours worked due to rounding of employee timekeeping records, keep adequate time records, provide meal periods and meal period premiums, and provide rest periods and rest period premiums, claims for unfair competition, unfair business practices, unlawful business practices, and fraudulent business practices in violation of California Business and Professions Code sections 17200 et seq., and claims for declaratory relief, statutory penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs, as well as all other claims and allegations alleged in the Operative Complaint. Expressly excluded from the Released Class Claims are claims for retaliation, discrimination, unemployment insurance, disability, workers' compensation, and claims outside the Class Period.

The "Released PAGA Claims" means all claims for civil penalties under PAGA that were or could have been reasonably asserted based on the facts and allegations made in the Operative Complaint and/or the LWDA Letters, arising during the PAGA Period, including claims arising under California Labor Code sections 98.6, 201, 201.3, 202, 203, 204, 210, 216, 223, 225.5, 226, 226.7, 227.3, 232, 233, 234, 245-248.5, 246, 247.5, 248.2, 432, 432.5, 432.7, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1024.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1197.5, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, 1527, 2698 et seq., 2800, 2802, 2810.5, 3366, 3457, 6401, and 8397.4, as alleged in the Operative Complaint and/or the LWDA Letters, and the California Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders based on the facts alleged in the Operative Complaint and/or the LWDA Letters.

F. Enhancement Award for the Class Representatives

Subject to the Court's approval, Plaintiffs will seek Enhancement Awards of up to $10,000.00 each (total, $30,000.00) in recognition of their active participation in the prosecution of the Action. The Enhancement Awards will be paid and deducted from the Maximum Settlement Amount, and if awarded, they will be paid to Plaintiffs in addition to their Individual Settlement Payments and Individual PAGA Payments that they are entitled to under the Settlement.

G. Attorneys' Fees and Costs

Subject to the Court's approval, Class Counsel will seek attorneys' fees and costs in an amount not to exceed thirty-five percent (35%) of the Maximum Settlement Amount which equals $2,336,250.00 and reimbursement of litigation costs and expensed not to exceed $22,000.00. The Attorneys' Fees and Costs will be paid and deducted from the Maximum Settlement Amount. Class Counsel has been prosecuting the Action on behalf of Plaintiffs, Class Members, and PAGA Members on a contingency fee basis (that is, without being paid any money to date) and has been paying all litigation costs and expenses.

F. Settlement Administration Costs

Subject to the Court's approval, payment to the Settlement Administrator is estimated not to exceed $20,000.00 for the costs of the notice and settlement administration process, including and not limited to, the expense of notifying the Class Members of the Settlement, processing Requests for Exclusion, Notices of Objection, and Workweeks Disputes, calculating Individual Settlement Shares, Individual Settlement Payments, and Individual PAGA Payments, and distributing payments and tax forms under the Settlement, and shall be paid from the Maximum Settlement Amount.
