7pm Meeting Convene

Welcome: Jeremy Bravo, President. Please sign in. Mission Statement.

ARTICLE I PURPOSE

The object of this Association is to promote harmony among all residents of the Crestwood neighborhood, to promote vigilance against crime, and to work cooperatively with City, County, and other local government officials for the general welfare of the neighborhood and its residents.

Visitors and/or new neighbors?

Business Item 1: Liz Moore- Volunteers for Halloween event, candy donations, etc

Business Item 2: Nominating Committee: The nominating committee is tasked with identifying qualified candidates willing to run for office and serve in 2026. The committee is made up of 5 members distributed among board members and non-board members. We will place names in a hat and draw until we get the distribution the bylaws require.

3. Reports of Committees:

Crime Patrol & Security: Frank- Very low crime reported in the last few months. Please lock doors with holidays approaching. Great turnout at national night out.

Treasurer: Jeremy- Bank balances are $3000 above June 2024. Healthy and conservative spending by the board.

Membership: Brett- Membership is up to 35% vs 22% around the same time last year.

Nominating Committee Drawn:

Chair: Ana Garcia

Brenda Colegrove

Ana Martin

Roy Russell

Gayle Davis

Neighbors Approached The Association with Neighborhood Issues:

Sue and Jane Ana: Water pooling at intersection of Wildwood and Eastwood creating a pest and mosquito infestation.

Roy Russell: Bailey water project should be replaced with concrete, instead of asphalt which can damage easily.

Meeting adjourned: 8:10pm
