

Dear Friend,

We're excited to share plans for the 13th Annual Empty Bowls Palm Beach event on February 6th, 2026, at the beautiful Church of Bethesda-by-the-Sea.

Empty Bowls Palm Beach is a heartfelt tradition that helps us provide nutritious food for our neighbors in need. With hunger up in Palm Beach County, giving back to our community is more critical than ever. Empty Bowls is a simple yet meaningful way for us to come together as one voice to help alleviate hunger in our own backyard.

Each year more than 500 guests gather in the stunning Church of Bethesda-by-the-Sea courtyard to enjoy an afternoon of delicious soups prepared by gourmet chefs and served by our sponsors and other local leaders. And every guest takes home a beautiful, hand-painted bowl. It's an opportunity to connect with friends and neighbors while remembering the 192,000 children, families and seniors who would face an empty bowl without our support.

Over thirteen years, Church of Bethesda-by-the-Sea has partnered with the Palm Beach County Food Bank to raise $1.1 million for hunger relief through this event. And the media loves Empty Bowls. Last year's event was covered by the Palm Beach Daily News, Palm Beach Post, and WPTV. This year, Palm Beach Illustrated magazine is our exclusive media sponsor.

Won't you join us as a sponsor this year?

Please join us as we break bread, taste gourmet soups from local fine dining restaurants, and eat simply so that others may simply eat. Sponsors will enjoy a VIP reception in the church garden, reserved seating and an opportunity to be a Celebrity Server.

We are honored to stand by past supporters including Anne & Chris Flowers, JP Morgan, FPL, Leo Rosner Foundation, Wells Fargo Bank, Old School Bakery, and many others.

Please join us for a lovely afternoon dedicated to alleviating hunger.

With gratitude,

Jamie
