A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR...

Pr. Paul Burow

In the past months a number of our people have sadly had to put their beloved pets down. Of course there are many reasons for this—most include the beloved pet becoming sick or simply living into old age. As an example, we have a 17 year old little dog who is declining daily. We are faced with a difficult and emotional decision. And our cat is reaching geriatric age, though he seems to be okay up to this point.

The truth is that our pets are members of our family. They give us joy, we take care of them, they share with us the wonderful events of life like with the family gathering for holidays, and we take care of them as we would our young children. (Feed them, clean up after them, cuddle with them, and so on). When we lose them we undergo grief. Our furry friends welcome us home after a long day. Our dog loves to sit right by us on the couch when we watch TV. He was bred as a companion dog, and what a wonderful companion he has been.

I have had four pets over the years we have had to put down. One of them, our beloved cat died in our son's arms—suddenly. Perhaps a stroke—I don't know. But he simply died, in a flash, unexpectedly. Our family dog when I was growing up reached the end of her time with us when she could not walk to go outside. My parents were so broken up, I had to sign the papers to put her to sleep. Three dogs and one cat, and it never gets easier.

What does Scripture say about animals and pets? They are part of God's beloved creation, loved and blessed by God. The animals were brought before Adam to name them. Isaiah speaks of peace when the lion shall lie down with the lamb, and a little child will lead them. In Matthew 15, Jesus mentions the dogs that eat crumbs from the masters' table.

CS Lewis (who wrote the Narnia series, Mere Christianity, and The Screwtape Letters) said pets are saved by the faith of their masters. What a wonderful insight. I imagine our beloved pets running to us when we enter the Heavenly Kingdom.

Christopher Smart was an English poet that was put in an insane asylum, but continued to write poetry, and this is an excerpt from his poem "Jubilato Agno."

"For I will consider my Cat Jeoffry.
For he is the servant of the Living God duly and daily serving him.
For at the first glance of the glory of God in the East he worships in his way.
For this is done by wreathing his body seven times round with elegant quickness...

God has blessed him in the variety of his movements.
For, tho he cannot fly, he is an excellent clamberer.
For his motions upon the face of the earth are more than any other quadruped.
For he can tread to all the measures upon the music.
For he can swim for life.
For he can creep up to catch the musk, which is the blessing of God upon his prayer..."

And from Job 12: "But ask the animals, and they will teach you, or the birds in the sky, and they will tell you; or speak to the earth, and it will teach you, or let the fish in the sea inform you. Which of all these does not know that the hand of the LORD has done this? In his hand is the life of every creature and the breath of all mankind."

Thanks be to God for our furry friends.

Greetings to everyone at Family of God —

We are getting into the warmer months of the year. I am admittedly not a fan of hot weather. I don't like feeling overheated. I hate getting into a car that's been sitting in the sun all day. I absolutely abhor humidity and mosquitos. (But then again, you will definitely hear me complain in the dark winter months, so there's no winning there).

One positive part of summer for me is my garden. We traded a standard lawn in our front yard for mulch and a perennial garden a few years back. It has been an enormous amount of work. It's my big project and I have learned a lot by tending it. I find that these lessons apply to church life, too.

The first lesson I want to share with you is embracing surprise. I put down seeds every spring to fill in the gaps between shrubs, ornamental grasses, and so forth. I use a blend of seeds and am never sure what will grow. Sometimes I forget that I've sown seeds in a particular area. If I also plant bulbs, it may be a year or two before I see any results. My neighbors have probably heard me talking to myself and asking, "Now what on earth is that?" Beauty can arrive when you're not looking for it. And you may plant a seed that won't bear fruit for a long time. You never know what ministry might yield and where God is at work.

The second lesson is that every living thing has different needs. If you've raised kids, you'll know needs can vary greatly between one child and the next. Our ministries can be like that, some requiring a more hands-on approach while others flourish with more space. Relationships can be like that, too. I've found that my own needs fluctuate over months and years—sometimes I need more rest or support than usual. One size doesn't fit all. How is this the case in your world? Maybe a friend is having a tough time and could use a kind note. Maybe your family could adopt a new prayer practice. Maybe you need a nap. Be attentive!

I have a lot of takeaways from gardening but I'll share just one more. Don't overextend yourself. I never thought gardening was particularly physical until I did it myself. I've had cuts and bruises and sunburns. I've strained my hamstrings, thrown out my back, and even injured my wrist after a long afternoon of repetitive weeding. It's great to have a vision and be ambitious, but if you burn yourself out (or pinch your sciatic nerve!), you're not going to be getting anything done in the long run. That's a good reminder for our church ministry and all areas of life.

It seems Concordia Publishing House is also seeing faith in nature. Our VBS theme this year is "Tropical Trek." We'll be gathering in the mornings from June 15-18. Our Bible stories will take us from the friendship of Ruth and Naomi to the appearance of Jesus to the apostle Paul. Wherever we are in the wilderness, God finds us and cares for us. Sign up your young person on our website or pick a volunteer slot at the kiosk in the narthex. And as always, let me know if you have questions. Happy summer!

Blessings to you and your loved ones!
- Pr. Erin Koster

May 2026 Council Summary

Meeting was called to order at 7:05 by Vice President Larry Parson

Randy Blackorbay led devotions on an excerpt from John.

Memorial Garden: Joan Hermanson presented an update on the project. She has created a binder with all the information on the project. She recommended a committee to take over to manage, as this will be an on-going project.

First Aid class conducted earlier this month was reviewed and received praise by the council members that attended as being valuable. In other facility updates, the HVAC installation has been completed on budget. The installer was commended for the high detail and good customer service. Discussion on the outdoor sign continued from previous months and evolved into a discussion about projects that may be higher priority such as addressing the rubber roof that is past its life expectancy and the staining on the exterior stucco. Property Committee will be asked to weigh in on priorities.

New Member installation took place since last council meeting. Council officially approved them as members. A big welcome to: Tom and Bev Anderson, Ledin family: Sondra, Logan, Rylee, Leila, Julie Kasera, and Barbara Poole!

In new business, the Safe Child Policy was discussed. Feedback will be received from CYF with the target to have council adopt a policy prior to fall resumption of activities. Building Use policy was also discussed, based on some recent damage to the handicap button by a renter. (Repairs will be paid for by the renter.)

The Pastors provided updates as well as committee liaisons. Financial update was given by Rick Strub and report was approved by council.

Meeting adjourned at 9:26pm.

Be doers of the word and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. James 1:22

God wants you to focus on doing what he tells you to do, not just hearing what he tells you to do. He calls you to be an active follower of Jesus, not a passive listener.

The truth is you can listen to sermons and study the Bible for decades. But if you never do anything about what you've heard and learned, then you're not growing more like Christ.

The Bible shows you the path to walk on, that's doctrine. It shows you where you got off the path, that's reproof. It shows you how to stay on the path; that's instruction in righteousness. God's word is practical, real world truth.

You say you believe in forgiveness, but do you forgive people who've hurt you? You say you believe in waiting on God, but are you patient?

Make plans to do something about what you hear so that you can grow into the person God created you to be.

My heartfelt thanks to members of the Sanctuary choir, and for those who performed on an instrument or sang a solo in worship this past year.

If you have been considering sharing your musical gifts in worship, please let me know. There are lots of empty chairs in the choir loft just waiting for those who would take part. Rehearsals will resume in August. Wednesday nights from 7:00 pm-8:15 pm.

Blessings,

Judy Blomgren

Juneteenth

In 1863, during the American Civil War, Pres. Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation, which declared more than three million enslaved people living in the Confederate states to be free. More than two years would pass, however, before the news reached African Americans living in Texas. It was not until Union soldiers arrived in Galveston, Texas, on June 19, 1865, that the state's residents finally learned that slavery had been abolished. The formerly enslaved immediately began to celebrate. The original observances included prayer meetings and the singing of spirituals, and celebrants wore new clothes as a way of representing their newfound freedom. Within a few years, African Americans in other states were celebrating the day as well, making it an annual tradition. Celebrations have continued across the United States into the 21st century and typically include prayer and religious services, speeches, educational events, family gatherings and picnics, and festivals with music, food, and dancing prayer, feasting, song.

Church Basement Ladies

What does "church lady" mean to you? To some of us we may picture Mom or Grandma attending services or perhaps serving on church council. Maybe they helped to prepare meals, or they taught Sunday School or they participated in Ruth Circle.

Family of God's Ruth Circle members are the Church Ladies of our church. We gather once a month and support several committees to serve not only our church but our community as well. One of our upcoming activities will be an outing to see "A Second Helping, The Church Basement Ladies Sequel." We have tickets reserved for Sunday, August 16, for the 2:00 p.m. performance at the Plymouth Playhouse.

The price of the tickets is $44.10; payment in full secures your spot. Checks can be made payable to Family of God. Please note CBL on the memo line. If anyone has questions, please contact Stephanie Statz at 612-850-8220 for more information.

Everyone is welcome to join us in this fun outing. Bring your spouse or invite your friends and family. The important part is to join us for lots of fun and laughs.

Ruth Circle will resume their monthly meetings in September. All ladies of the church are welcome to join.

Pride Month

Over the years, gay pride events have spread from large cities to smaller towns and villages worldwide—even in places where repression and violence against gays and lesbians are commonplace. The atmosphere at these events can range from raucous, carnivalesque celebrations to strident political protest to solemn memorials for those lost to AIDS or homophobic violence.

In June 2000, President Bill Clinton officially designated June as Gay and Lesbian Pride Month, in recognition of the Stonewall Riots and gay activism throughout the years. A more-inclusive name was chosen in 2009 by President Barack Obama: Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender Pride Month.

The origins of Gay Pride Month were also honored by Obama when, in 2016, he created the Stonewall National Monument, a 7.7-acre around the Stonewall Inn where the modern gay rights movement began.

FAMILY OF GOD MEMORIAL GARDEN

The Family of God Memory Garden was given in loving memory of Arnie Hermanson by Joan Hermanson and family. We would like to thank all the people that generously gave of their time and talents to make this garden possible especially Pastor Paul, Ally, and members of the Care of Property Committee. A special thank you to Sue Elsass for providing help with physical labor, ideas, decision making and moral support. We have appreciated the interest, encouragement, and support of the congregation during this more than two year project.

Memorial Garden Committee— The Family of God memorial garden is looking beautiful with 34 new engraved pavers. As a new project, this has been an interesting learning process. Problems and glitches have been worked out and instructions and guidelines have been written. We are forming a memorial garden committee to carry on garden operations for now and in the future. If you are interested in helping on this committee, please contact Joan Hermanson at 763-229-5110. Joan will help train committee members in the ordering and installation processes. Another installation will take place this fall and then after that, once a year on All Saints' Sunday.

Social Ministry Corner

I just wanted to reach out and thank you again for the wonderful donation that you dropped off last week. After weighing the donation, we calculated the total weight of the items which came to 119.4 pounds of food/grocery items and 54.7 pounds of hygiene items.

Please extend our thanks to all those who donated! These items make a huge difference for the visitors who utilize the Food Cupboard and we greatly appreciate the generous contribution from Family of God Lutheran Church!

Enjoy your summer and hope to connect again soon.

Best,

Ellie McDowell, LSW
