¿SABÍAS QUE...? — DID YOU KNOW

- ♦ Tapa means “lid”. Legend has it Andalusian innkeepers covered glasses of sherry with a slice of bread or ham to keep the flies off — and the little snack on top became the star.
- ♦ Tapas are a pastime, not a course — ir de tapeo means drifting from bar to bar, one small plate and one small drink at a time. Order a few and share everything.

LA CARTA

tapas para compartir — made for sharing we recommend 2–3 plates per person

PAELLA £5.95

A rice dish cooked with chicken & chorizo — rich in flavour and colour.

- ◆ Born in Valencia as a farmers' dish, named after the wide pan it's cooked in.
- ◆ Made in limited portions — when it's gone, it's gone! Please check availability.

POLLO AL JEREZ £5.95

Marinated chicken breast with mushrooms in a sweet sherry & cream sauce.

- ◆ From the countryside around Jerez de la Frontera — the home of sherry.

PINCHOS £5.95

Lightly toasted sourdough topped with tuna, pimento & anchovy, secured with a cocktail stick.

- ◆ A Basque Country classic — pintxo means “spike”.

MAGRA CON TOMATE £6.95

Tender pieces of pork cooked in tomato sauce — a hearty balance of meaty and slightly sweet tomato flavours.

- ◆ A proud taste of Murcia.

PATATAS BRAVAS £4.95

Fried cubes of potato topped with a spicy tomato sauce, served with aioli.

- ◆ Born in Madrid — now a staple of tapas bars across Spain.

TORTILLA £3.95

Baked egg with potatoes & onions, served on a base of tomato sauce.

- ◆ The famous Spanish omelette — a true Iberian classic.

ENSALADA DE GARBANZOS £4.95

A traditional chickpea salad with diced tomatoes, cucumber, peppers & capers in a sherry vinaigrette.

- ◆ Every region does it differently — some add tuna, boiled egg or salted cod.

GAMBAS AL AJILLO £6.95

King prawns cooked in olive oil with lashings of garlic.

- ◆ A Madrid favourite since the last century.

CATALAN PAN £4.95

Toasted sourdough brushed with garlic, topped with cold crushed tomato & olive oil.

- ◆ Pa amb tomàquet — simple, emblematic Catalonia.

BONDEGAS £5.95

Homemade meatballs in a spicy chilli & tomato sauce, topped with Spanish parsley pesto.

- ◆ Meatballs came to Spain in the era of Muslim rule in Iberia.

CROQUETAS £5.95

Ham & cheese in a rich béchamel, coated in breadcrumbs & deep-fried.

- ◆ Borrowed from the French croquette in the 19th century.

LA TAPA cheese & cured ham, on a wooden lid for your glass
