THE BIBLE AND THE CHURCH

This is the third installment in a series on helping Catholics know how to have constructive conversations with non-Catholics on the issues that are most likely to arise. This article will deal with the role that the Bible plays in the Catholic Church.

Many Protestants claim that the Catholic Church does not follow the Bible. However, the Catholic Church believes that the Bible is divinely inspired (the authentic word of God), free from error and binding on Catholics. No Catholic teaching or practice can be contrary to the Bible. Catholic priests and deacons take an oath which states: "With firm faith, I also believe everything contained in the word of God."

Jesus did not rely on a book to pass on his teachings. He instructed the 12 apostles in His teachings, and told them "Whoever listens to you listens to me. Whoever rejects you rejects me. And whoever rejects me rejects the one who sent me." Before He ascended into heaven. He instructed the apostles to "Go and make disciples of all nations, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

It wasn't until late in the 4th Century that the Catholic Church alone decided which writings were sufficiently accurate and authentic to be included in the Bible. That was the only Bible that existed for over 1,000 years before Martin Luther changed the Bible in the Protestant Reformation.

"All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for refutation, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that one who belongs to God may be competent, equipped for every good work."
2 Timothy 3:16-17

PICTORIAL DIRECTORY

Beginning next weekend, June 20th-21st, we will begin scheduling appointments for portrait sessions for our new parish pictorial directory. This is also a wonderful opportunity to have your family portrait professionally taken.

There is no sitting fee, and each participating parish family will receive a complimentary 8x10 portrait of their choice, as well as a free copy of the parish pictorial directory.

We encourage all parishioners to participate in this special project. Our parish directory is a valuable way to strengthen our parish community and become more familiar with the names and faces of our fellow parishioners.

Additional information, including details on how to schedule your portrait session, will be provided in the Friday E-News and informational flyers.

ALTAR FLOWERS

This weekend's altar flowers are sponsored by the Baumgartner, Pixley, and Sands families in honor of their dear friends, Kathryn and Randall Young, on the occasion of their milestone birthdays. Congratulations, and may God bless you both with good health, happiness, and many joyful years to come!

COFFEE & DONUTS

Join us for Coffee & Donuts after the 8:00 am Mass on Sunday, June 28th, in the Community Room. Enjoy refreshments, fellowship, and the opportunity to get to know your fellow parishioners.

If you are new to our parish, we invite you to stop by so we can personally welcome you, provide information about our parish, ministries, and upcoming events, and present you with a welcome gift. We look forward to meeting you!

WELCOME, WILLOW ZARECKI!

Welcome to our new Coordinator of Youth Faith Formation, Willow Zarecki! When you see her around the parish, please congratulate her! Here is more about Willow in her own words.

"Hi, I'm Willow Zarecki. You may have seen me around the parish behind my camera. I am honored to be chosen to fill Chris' shoes (and they're big shoes to fill) as he departs for seminary. I am a recent convert to the Catholic faith, joining the Church at the Easter Vigil in 2025. Since my conversion, I have been on fire for our faith and love learning more about the history of the Church and the Saints.

I have been volunteering with our Youth Ministry since shortly after my Confirmation, specifically as a high school catechist this past academic year. Prior to joining the Catholic Church, I was heavily involved in my non-denominational church's youth ministry, serving as a small group leader, camp counselor, and on the worship media team. I also volunteer with our ACTS ministry, lend a hand to the Knights of Columbus with graphic design, and have served on Parish Council for the last year.

I obtained my Bachelors in Social Media Marketing from Arizona State University with a minor in photography. My husband, Zane, and I will be celebrating 5 years of marriage in October. While we have no children of our own yet, we recently became godparents! In my free time you can find me curled up with my cross stitch or spending time with friends and family. I am so excited to serve the parish youth in a greater capacity and look forward to all God has in store. Saint John Bosco, pray for us!"

BAPTISM CLASS

Are you having a child baptized soon? If so, please plan to attend Baptism Class on Thursday, June 25th, from 7:00-8:00 pm in the Community Room with Father Jack. Questions? Please call the Parish Office at (918) 299-9406.
