COLLECT

Faithful Creator, whose mercy never fails:
deepen our faithfulness to you and to your living Word,
Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

POST COMMUNION COLLECT

Loving Father, we thank you for feeding us at the supper of your Son:
sustain us with your Spirit, that we may serve you here on earth until our joy is complete in heaven, and we share in the eternal banquet with Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

FIRST BIBLE READING

Romans 5. 1-8

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

This is the Word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

Matthew 9.35-10.8

Alleluia, Alleluia

My sheep hear my voice says the Lord. I know them and they follow me.

All Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.'

Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax-collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: 'Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, "The kingdom of heaven has come near." Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

NOTICES THIS WEEK

Flowers

Many thanks for the following donations towards the flowers this week.

From Doreen Slack in memory of her loving husband Ron for his anniversary on the 14th June and from Jenene Snowball in loving memory of her mam Jean Patterson for her anniversary on the 17th June.

Church opening this Summer

We are hoping to open the church to visitors on selected days over the Summer.

We are looking for volunteers to welcome our visitors. You do not need to be an expert on the history of Holy Trinity, just willing to make folk "feel at home". Nobody will be expected to be in church on their own. And you do not need to commit to a lot of sessions.

If you think this might be something you could do, please speak with Andrew Cresswell who is coordinating the sessions. Thank you.

Church Stall

If you use the contactless device to pay for items from the church stall, could you please write down what you have purchased and how much you paid on the sheet provided? This is simply to help us keep track of stock when we don't have physical money to count. Thanks so much. Jenene.

Community Support Group
