Pinnacle Gift™

Pinnacle Gift™ - (email) prep work to participant – we suggest sending this 1 – 2 weeks prior

Hello,

We are excited about our time together to explore your Pinnacle Gift! We will have a fun and interactive group.

Homework reminder:

To assist you in maximizing your experience and outcomes discovering your Pinnacle Gift™ we've prepared the attached Pinnacle Gift™ Feedback Request form. Our suggestion is that you email this feedback request to people you now work with or have formerly worked with, customers, service providers, family, friends, and others who may be in the position to provide you with good feedback. The ideal outcome would be to have a range of feedback from those who know you well in business and in non-business settings. We suggest approximately 60% - 70% from business and 30% - 40% from non-business settings.

The reason we suggest a good number of requests is that you are more likely to receive a good number of responses and are then more likely to see recurring patterns. We think you will be pleasantly surprised by the responses and the depth of understanding people have about who you are.

Pinnacle Gift™ Feedback Request form

PINNACLE GIFT™ FEEDBACK REQUEST

I am writing to request your assistance. I will soon be taking a course called Pinnacle Gift™. The course's concept is that each of us has a specific gift and reason that we are on the planet. When individuals, and especially entrepreneurs, identify and then apply their Pinnacle Gift™ they are better able to distinguish themselves and their businesses. This makes the business more profitable and successful, and also makes the journey more enjoyable.

My goal is to identify my Pinnacle Gift™ so that I can more intentionally apply my gift in my business and life. I value you and your insights and would appreciate very much if you could take a few minutes to answer the following questions. Your responses will provide me with valuable insights as I determine my Pinnacle Gift™.

1. What am I good at doing?
2. What gifts (talents, expertise, strengths) do you think I possess?
3. What kinds of things can you depend on me for?
4. Overall, what sets me apart from others, both personally and as an entrepreneur?
5. If you had to guess, how would you describe my Pinnacle Gift™?

So that I have time to prepare for my upcoming course I would appreciate your response by _____.

Thank you in advance for your help.
