FOOD FOR THOUGHT

How are we balancing
our
civic responsibilities
with our
ultimate allegiance
to God,
bearing His image in every part of our daily
life?
*"Repay to Caesar
what belongs to Caesar
and to God what belongs to God".*

You can use this QR Code to fill out a short census form or a paper form is available at the entrance.

Mass Readings Overview

First Reading (Isaiah 45:1, 4-6): God calls Cyrus, the pagan king of Persia, and empowers him for the sake of Israel, declaring that there is no other God besides the Lord ("I am the LORD, there is no other").

Responsorial Psalm (Psalm 96:1, 3, 4-5, 7-8, 9-10): "Give the Lord glory and honor," calling all nations and lands to praise the Lord's majesty, justice, and universal rule.

Second Reading (1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b): Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy express gratitude for the Thessalonian church, highlighting how their faith, love, and hope were manifested through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Gospel (Matthew 22:15-21): Pharisees and Herodians attempt to trap Jesus with a question about paying the census tax to Caesar; Jesus asks for a coin and delivers the classic response: "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God".

A PERSONAL PRAYER FOR THE 29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Lord, when life feels heavy or unfair, help me to anchor my heart in Your justice and mercy. Conform my will to Yours—not just in moments of ease, but in my daily choices, my work, and my relationships. Take away my impatience, my pride, and the temptation to keep parts of my life separate from Your grace. Amen.
