When seeking to buy our first home my husband and I went straight to Beattie Real Estate, we found John extremely helpful. When bidding on a house John was very open and honest with us. He understood our wants and needs and only advised us on properties that would be suitable. We felt very vulnerable and John didn't take advantage, he was very transparent throughout and made our experience less difficult. We will be forever grateful to John and we would highly recommend him to anyone buying, selling or renting. We can't say enough good things about John.
