I STILL DO
MARRIAGE MINISTRY

Even the best marriages can use a little boot camp

Looking for something to do with your spouse during those long winter days?

Just as muscles can atrophy without regular exercise, the same is true in relationships.

Even the best marriages can use a little boot camp.

Hear great speakers on different topics, reconnect with your spouse, spend some quiet time in adoration, and much more.

The morning will begin at 8:30 am with a continental breakfast and end with an optional lunch at 12:30 pm.

There is no cost (free-will offerings welcome).
Location: Divine Savior Catholic School

To register or for more information, contact Terri Riesselmann.
